

NATIONAL LAW UNIVERSITY, DELHI

Punishment and Sentencing in a Democratic Society – A Dialogue

December 19, 2015

About the Organizer

National Law University, Delhi (NLUD) established in 2008 by Act No.1 of 2008 of National Capital Territory of Delhi and with the initiative of High Court of Delhi, is a premier Law University established in India. The vision of the University is to create a Global Legal Institution which will compete with the best outside India and to prepare lawyers for a legal career that introduces them to wide range of opportunities in legal profession across the globe. The University is offering the five year integrated B.A.LL.B. (Hons.) Programme from the year 2008 and the LL.M., Ph.D. and P.G. Diploma Programme from the year 2011.

About the Dialogue

There have been significant developments in the area of punishment and sentencing laws in the recent times that are evidenced by the enactment of harsh punishment measures and severe sentencing decisions, including the Yakub Memon decision that had captured the national imagination till the very last. Despite such vital developments there has been only a sparse intellectual or academic analysis/critique of the involved issues. Though the national English language print media has to some extent made up for the lack of intellectual inquiries, but these initiatives, marked by the quality of spontaneity and news-orientation, are far from what can serve the needs of an aspiring democratic society like India. Keeping in mind the fact of lack of adequate, scientific and informed information on the theme of punishment/sentencing and realizing the knowledge generation role of a premier legal institution of the nation the National Law University, Delhi under the auspices of Shri K.L. Arora Chair in Criminal Law is organizing a Dialogue on “Punishment and Sentencing in a Democratic Society” on 19th December 2015. This dialogue would elicit the views of a cross-section of the Indian society, including judges, Advocates, Legal academics, Politicians, Police, Correctional administrators, media and law students, on the above theme. This Dialogue envisages conducting a thread-bare examination and analysis of the involved themes, both in terms of their theoretical as well as practical dimensions. Though the dialogue would touch upon the diverse forms of punishment deployed by the Courts in the day to day administration of Criminal Justice, but special focus would obviously remain on Death Sentence, Life Imprisonment sentencing. It is hoped that the outcomes of this dialogue would not only shed scientific light and enhance the real and symbolic uses to which different forms of punishment are subjected to, but would help the sentencing administrators Judges and correctional officials to make a rational choice about sentencing at the appropriate time.
