(Fri-Sun)

School of Business & Taxation Laws,
University of New South Wales, Sydney, Australia.

The logo of National Law University, Delhi is composed of 3 elements: n(N), L(L) and U(U) which are interlinked by the second element (L or Law). In its totality it represents the harmonious confluence of disparate elements (disciplines) and levels : a rule that law and its executive, the judicial system, also performs. Individually, the "N" and "U" are downward-and upward-facing respectively, symbolizing polar (and complementary) outlooks through which law threads its way. The extension of 'L' or Law to the last level (or layer) attempts to encapsulate the concerns of social justice. The emphasis is on the rule of Law (represented by the 'L') in promoting social justice, particularly targeting those below baseline standards. Its columnar arrangement suggests an upholding of justice, equality, fraternity and human rights in all their facets in a secular democracy.

CALL FOR PAPERS

A robust and reliable legal framework is the backbone of a vibrant and enabling business environment. Therefore, the government has ushered in a plethora of reforms for revamping the laws governing and regulating the Indian Financial sector. From working on the Insolvency & Bankruptcy Codes to the introduction of the Goods and Services Tax (GST), the government has adopted a progressive approach at an unusually fast but cautious pace.

In tune with our mandate, we at National Law University, Delhi constantly strive to study, analyze and comment on this evolving jurisprudence under the dynamic leadership of our Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor Prof. (Dr).Ranbir Singh. Therefore the Centre for Banking and Financial Laws, National Law University, Delhi is organizing a three day conference on the theme Recent Financial Reforms in Indian: An Unfinished Agenda. The conference is organized in collaboration with School of Business and Taxation Laws, University of New South Wales, Sydney, Australia. The proposed conference will seek participation of both national and international scholars in the field of corporate and financial law for sharing their views and work in progress on the areas of financial legal reform and suggestions for better formulation of such laws.

It will further provide a platform for the industry and academia to engage, debate and brainstorm on such laws. On similar lines we will also endeavor to identify best practices in other countries for the regulation of financial sector.

Papers are invited on the below mentioned themes which will be peer reviewed for presentation during the conference. The sub-themes are illustrative and not exhaustive and the participants may choose any other related themes like Consumer protection, Intellectual Property Law, Franchising law, Superannuation law and Economic policies etc. It will be desirable that the paper theme corresponds to the main theme of financial legal reforms.
