ABOUT THE CENTRE FOR TRANSNATIONAL COMMERCIAL LAW (CTCL)

The CTCL actively engages in deliberations involving the unification and harmonization of international private laws along with the UNCITRAL (United Nations Commission on International Trade Law), UNIDROIT, the Hague Conference etc. It aims to be a centre of excellence and also a guiding factor in policy formulation on transnational commercial laws.

Research Project

This Research Project also includes an empirical survey on ‘Issues in Drafting & Enforcing International Commercial Contracts’, in the Delhi NCR, being conducted in Jan-March 2017.

1. “Whether a Uniform Commercial Law is Likely to aid in ‘Ease of doing Business’ and ‘Enforcing Contracts’ in India?”
2. “Issues in Drafting & Enforcing International Commercial Contracts”
3. “Bankruptcy & Cross-Border Insolvency- Some Contemporary Issues”

Researcher Profile

The short term project requires a Researcher who is proficient in transnational commercial laws, critical commercial law and well versed with jurisprudence and legal theory framework of international commercial law for this project. A Masters Degree in Law is desirable.

The work would involve preparing briefs, critical assessment of selected writings on this subject and an empirical analysis. The duration of project is likely to be three months. It carries a lump sum honorarium of Rs. 90,000/- (Rupees Ninety Thousand only, for the entire project duration).

The interested candidates may send their detailed CV, photograph and experience certificates to the undersigned at the email ctcl@nludelhi.ac.in latest by Friday, 27th January, 2017. They are also required to submit one page sample writing on either one of the above three topics.
