5. EVALUATION:

Each of the Papers shall carry a maximum of 100 Marks.

1. The evaluation of students in a paper shall broadly be based on two segments:

a. Continuous evaluation by the teacher(s) of the course:

Continuous evaluation will be only for 50% of the total marks assigned to each course. It may comprise of projects, case analysis, assignments, presentations and other similar evaluation methods. The faculty member teaching any course will have the discretion to evolve his/her own scheme for continuous evaluation on the basis of this broad guideline.

b. Evaluation through a semester examination:

Each course will be evaluated by a semester examination for 50% marks of the total marks assigned to each course. The examination may be open/closed book depending upon the particular requirement of any course. The exam component cannot exceed 50% of the total marks for the course.

The Dissertation will be evaluated out of a maximum of 200 marks out of which 150 marks shall be for the dissertation and 50 marks for the Viva-voce. The internal guide/ supervisor and an external evaluator will evaluate the dissertation. The average of the marks awarded by both the evaluators shall constitute the final marks for the dissertation. The Viva – Voce will be conducted by the external evaluator who will award the 50 marks meant for the same.

Conditions for Pass and Re-examination

To be declared successful in any Course / Dissertation, a candidate must secure at least 'B' Grade. Those who secure 'F' Grade shall be declared as failed.

Candidates who fail to appear for the examination in a Course or fail to obtain at least 'B' Grade must take the respective examination again, including presentation of fresh Assignments/ Research Papers, in the corresponding Semester.

If a candidate secures 'F' Grade in the Dissertation or fails to submit the Dissertation within the time permitted he/she will be given one more chance to submit a revised Dissertation or Dissertation as the case may be within such time as the Faculty Committee decides.

A student admitted to the One year- LL.M. Degree Programme must complete all the prescribed requirements within a maximum period of 2 years from and including the year of admission in order to be eligible for the award of the Degree.

6. GRADING OF STUDENTS:

The performance of the candidates shall be evaluated on a six point scale with the corresponding Grade Values as follows:

- (a) The official transcript of the University shall indicate the Grades and the Cumulative Seven point Grade Point Average only. The interpretation of the Grade system followed by the University shall be printed at the back of the transcript itself.
- (b) The marks secured by the students shall be converted to the Grades as mentioned below:

Percentage of Marks	Grade	Grade Value
70 and above	O (Excellent/Outstanding)	7
65-69	A+	6
60-64	A	5
55-59	B+	4

A candidate to be declared successful has to obtain a minimum of 50% marks or the grade equivalent to that i.e. B in every paper.

- (c) In addition to the Grades mentioned above, the following acronyms are also used in the transcript wherever appropriate

Ab	-	Absent
R	-	Repeat
RW	-	Result Withheld
I	-	Improvement
F	-	Failed
Db	-	Debarred

- (d) The Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) is arrived at by dividing the sum of the Grade Values and the Course Credits in each course by the total number of credits in all the courses.

7. AWARD OF DEGREE

Candidates who have Completed all the courses and Dissertation obtaining at least a "B" Grade, and Secured Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) of 4 out of 8 shall be awarded the LL.M. Degree.

- (a) A student shall be eligible for the award of LL.M degree after successful completion of all the prescribed courses with a total of 24 credits and if he/she has obtained a minimum of CGPA of 3.00 out of 7.00.

- (c) Along with the Degree, all the students shall be provided with a consolidated Transcript, indicating the courses, course credits, grades obtained, CGPA as well as interpretation of these features on the reverse of the Transcript.
- (d) The Official Transcript shall be signed by the Registrar.
- (e) The Records of all the certificates issued by the University shall be maintained by the Examination Department/Section, in consultation with the Registrar.

8. AWARD OF GOLD MEDALS

- a) Gold Medal(s) shall be awarded on the basis of the criteria fixed for the said Gold medal. For Gold medals based on certain streams of study, they shall be awarded on the basis of the highest average of grades obtained in the courses of that stream.
- b) If two or more students have secured the same grade or grade average, then the marks secured by the students in the course/s shall be taken into consideration in awarding the Gold medals.
- c) If two or more students also secure the same marks, then the Gold Medal shall be awarded to the student who has higher grades overall. In case the two contenders have equal overall grades, then the grades in the compulsory courses, and performance in co-curricular activities shall be taken into account.
- d) A student who has been fined or has been expelled from the Hostel / University for any act of indiscipline shall not be eligible for the award of gold medal(s). A student who has failed in any course and has cleared the course in a Repeat Examination shall not be eligible for award of gold medals.

9. REQUIREMENT OF ATTENDANCE

- a) NLU Delhi being a residential University, it is expected that students shall attend all scheduled classes. In no event shall a student be absent for more than 30% of the classes held in the subject in a semester, whether on account of medical leave or otherwise.
- b) The attendance status of every student shall be duly notified by the Examination Department every month, both on the Notice Board, and by any other appropriate means for communication, indicating the total number of classes held, the number of classes a student has attended, or was absent. The Examination Department shall declare the final attendance status of every student as well as the list of eligible candidates to appear in the end semester examinations, prior to the commencement of the end semester examination
- c) Every student shall secure a minimum of 75% of attendance in every course to be eligible to appear for the end semester examination. However, if any student falls short of 75% but has secured 70% or more in a particular course(s), such student may be permitted to appear for the end semester examination provided the student has secured 75% or more in all other courses in a given semester. It is further clarified that, in such cases, the student, though permitted to appear for the end semester examination, shall not be entitled for the award of marks for attendance in those courses where the student has secured attendance below 75%.
- d) Students who have been granted Medical Leave as per the Regulations of the University, shall be eligible to appear for the end semester examination provided that they have attended a minimum of 70% of classes in the course for which they are appearing for the examination, and the shortfall in attendance is attributable to the medical leave.

10. ACADEMIC LEAVE

- a) Academic leave shall only be granted by the Vice Chancellor on the recommendation of the Class Teacher / Faculty Advisor. In applying for academic leave, the student shall specify the class hour/s that he/she maybe absent for. Academic leave shall be given for a class hour/set of class hours, and not in terms of days. An academic leave form shall accordingly be prepared by the Centre for Post graduate Legal Studies.
- b) Academic leave to a student shall be considered, subject to the prior approval of the Vice Chancellor, or any person designated by him, for participation in moot court competitions, seminars, conferences, or any other academic, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities. It is further clarified that academic leave shall not be granted for participation in Summer School programmes, internships, job interviews, passport/visa interviews, judicial exams, competitive exams etc. under any circumstances.
- c) Invitation for participation in any of the activities, for which a student may be granted academic leave, should have been received by the University or addressed to the University. Invitations addressed to individual students will not be considered for academic leave.
- d) Academic leave in a given semester, shall not exceed 10% of the classes in each subject.
- e) No academic leave shall be granted for appearing in examinations.
- f) It is clarified that in the event a student is unable to appear for an examination on any grounds whatsoever, including medical leave or academic leave, there shall not be any rescheduling of the said examination or special examination, or any proportionate enhancement of marks on the basis of marks secured in any other examination in the said course. No request from any student in this regard can be entertained by any authority.

11. MEDICAL LEAVE

- a) Medical leave shall be with the prior permission of the University, unless emergency circumstances do not permit it. In such an event, the Vice Chancellor shall be approached as soon as possible. Request for medical leave from students which will involve their absence from the University campus may be considered only against hospitalization for any treatment or investigation or isolation of student(s) required for any contagious diseases.
- b) All the medical records, investigations etc., done during admission in a hospital / nursing home along with the request should be submitted to the Examination Department immediately on reporting back to the University and in any case within one week of resuming the classes after the discharge from the hospital / nursing home concerned. No medical certificate shall be entertained by the Examination Department thereafter.
- c) Where the student is not admitted to a hospital / nursing home, but isolation of the student from the hostels is required in the larger interest of other students, the same shall be certified by the University doctor.
- d) Submission of improper medical certificates or fake certificates shall result in mandatory disciplinary action by the University.
- e) In case of a student who has been granted Medical Leave, the class hour/s missed on account of the medical leave shall not be excluded for calculating the total number of classes in the concerned course.

12. EXAMINATION SCHEME

It shall be mandatory for every student to appear for every examination conducted by the University. No student shall be allowed to absent himself/herself from any examination except with the prior written permission of the Vice Chancellor on a written request made by the student, stating the reasons for possible absence. It is further clarified that permission by the Vice Chancellor only excuses the student from appearing in the examination and is not a ground for any other relief, including those alluded to in Rule 10(f).

- a) A student who absents himself/herself for an examination without permission shall be declared "Failed" in that course. He/she shall appear in the Repeat Examination for that course. If he/she passes the course in the Repeat Examination, the grade obtained shall have ® mentioned against it in the transcript. It is further clarified that no exemption of any kind in any examination during an academic year shall be provided on medical grounds.
- b) If any student or a group of students, under a common understanding, intentionally absents himself/herself/themselves from any scheduled examination, he/she/they shall not be allowed to write the Repeat exam, and will be consider "Failed" in that course.Theywill have to re- register for the course as and when it is again offered, after due payment of the prescribed fine. The decision of the Disciplinary Committee as to whether the absence was pursuant to a common understanding shall be final, subject to an appeal to the Vice Chancellor.
- c) The CPGLS shall organize Repeat Examinations for those students who fail in any of the courses in a semester, as well as those students who have not appeared for the end semester examinations for any valid reasons. The Examination Department shall maintain a record of students who have not appeared for an examination, on any ground. The dates for the repeat examination shall generally be notified at the beginning of the semester. If the dates are changed, such change shall duly be notified by the Centre for Post Graduate Legal Studies at least one week before commencement of the repeat examination both on the Notice Board and the website of the University.

The Repeat Examination shall be generally organized either immediately after the completion of the end semester examinations or just before the commencement of the following semester or within 10 days of its commencement. The Grades obtained in the Repeat Examinations, unless duly approved, shall be indicated with® at the top of the Grade.

13. UNFAIR MEANS AND MALPRACTICES IN EXAMINATIONS

(1) Unfair means and other malpractices in relation to the examination shall include:

- a) Possession or use of material having potential to be used for unfair means, including cell phones.
- b) Writing on any part of the body/furniture/walls.
- c) Plagiarism in projects/seminar/assignments submitted for evaluation.
