Our Logo

"There Shall Justice Prevail"

The logo of National Law University Delhi is composed of 3 elements: n (N), L (L) and U (U) which are interlinked by the second element of L. In its totality, it represents the harmonious confluence of different elements of disciplines and level-a rule that Law and its executive, the judicial system also performs. Individually, the 'N' and 'U' are downward and upward facing, symbolising polar and complementary outlooks, through which Law threads its way. The extension of 'L' or Law to beneath the layer, attempts to encapsulate the concerns of equality and social justice. The emphasis is on the 'Rule of Law' (represented by the second 'L') in promoting social justice, particularly targeting the vulnerable population, that is lowest on the social ladder. Its columnar arrangement suggests an upholding of justice, equality, fraternity, and human rights in all their facets to reach at a secular democracy.

Vision

Globalisation is both a challenge and an opportunity in the present times, which requires an inter-disciplinary approach and the convergence of Economics, Technology, etc. with Law. India has had a long history of business and technology, whose potential has been further unleashed through the process of liberalisation. Yet smooth sailing of any Country's economy and its functioning as a nation requires the compass called 'Rule of Law'. India has had a sketchy track record on this count. India having established itself as a democracy is surely the success of its macro-participative process of Governance. Yet, there are other crucial issues of internal dimensions in need of retrospection, like:

1. There is a complex task and attempt to assimilate the fractured social classes, for centuries in such participation.
2. Cumulative economic progress needs to reach various layers of the society, to create a development index that is fair and equitable.
3. Most importantly, the existence and usage of a transparent and speedy Justice Administration System, which reinforces faith in the 'Rule of Law'.

As Mahatma Gandhi rightly said, "We must become the change we want to see in the world." Hence, each one of us who is or will be a part of this institution, should vow to be remembered for promoting and upholding social justice; which is targeted to be our contribution to the society.

Our sincere endeavour will be to make legal education as justice education, as an instrument of social, political and economic change, and to prepare lawyers who will be competent in the art of advocacy at both the trial and appellate levels, and skilled in judicial administration. The students of the National Law University Delhi will be shaped as agents of change as the country mandates to achieve its developmental goals for future generations. The primary mission of the University will be to create lawyers who will be professionally competent, technically sound and socially relevant, and will not only enter the Bar and the Bench but also be equipped to address the imperatives of the new millennium and uphold the Constitution of India.

National Academy of Law Teachers (NALT)

NLUD has established 'National Academy of Law Teachers' (NALT,) to improve quality of Teaching and Research in Law and other Social Sciences. NALT, since its inception, has been promoting and protecting teaching-learning methodology for the purposes of training/grooming faculty members towards quality teaching, research and curriculum development across the Nation. Keeping in view, the Charter of Objectives NALT sought to achieve, it has been organising orientations and refresher and capacity building programmes for teachers, on Law and Social Sciences courses, involving professionals/experts from India and Abroad.

NLUD has been empanelled as a resource organisation to conduct workshops or training on the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition, and Redressal) Act, 2013, by 'Ministry of Women and Child Development', Government of India. The University houses experts for conducting such trainings and workshops. Training Workshop on 'Prevention of Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition & Redressal) Act, 2013', with special emphasis on working of Internal Complaints Committees (ICCs) and Local Complaints Committees (LCCs), was conducted under the aegis of 'National Academy of Law Teachers' (NALT) at National Law University Delhi, October 6-7, 2018.

Training Workshop on 'Prevention of Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace'

1. The purpose of the workshop was to bring together a variety of stakeholders and members pan India. Around 60 delegates representing 14 states of India and 30 academic and other Institutions participated. Resource persons invited were from Academia, Industry as well as Delhi State Legal Services Authority (DSLISA).
2. Objectives of the workshop were:
 - a. Appraise participants on the issue of 'Workplace Sexual Harassment of Women'.
 - b. Impart working knowledge on the Sexual Harassment Act, 2013.
 - c. Aid understanding the legal position on this and how to handle Sexual Harassment complaints.

- d. Aid understanding the Constitution and functioning of ICCs and LCCs.
 - e. Specifically detail the procedures to be followed by ICCs and LCCs, while handling such complaints.
 - f. Enable various Governments as well as Private sector officials; understand the mandatory provisions of the Sexual Harassment Act, to maintain a positive work environment at work places and in the society.
3. A brief started the training workshop, given by Prof. (Dr.) Ritu Gupta, National Law University Delhi, discussing recent news in media on this issue; acknowledging the support from 'National Human Rights Commission & Ministry of Women & Child Development', Govt. of India. The Presidential address was given by Prof. (Dr.) Ranbir Singh, Hon. Vice Chancellor, National Law University Delhi. The keynote address given by Ms. Jyoti Kalra, Member, NHRC, expressed her concerns on the issue, discussing initiatives of NHRC and appreciating work being done by University in terms of Research and organising Training Workshops. Ms. Shipra Roy, Deputy Secretary, Ministry of Women & Child Development, Govt. of India, shared the vision of the Ministry in her brief address.
- Vote of thanks given by Prof. (Dr.) G. S. Bajpai, Registrar, NLUD, discussed importance of the workshop, not only in terms of training in procedures to be followed, but also in creating victim-friendly approach while handling such issues.
4. The first training session commenced with Ms. Jyotica Bhasin, from Bhasin & Bhasin Associates. Being a practicing lawyer having worked with several NGOs, especially in reference to employment laws, women rights, disciplinary and discrimination issues and prevention of sexual harassment (POSH) of women at workplace, has expertise in conducting domestic enquiries and internal investigations of over 20 years.
- She is presently on the ICCs of several companies and discussed various important provisions of the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition & Redressal) Act, 2013, with the participants including:
- Definition of sexual harassment,
 - Definition of workplace which also includes 'workplace in time and space',
 - Quid pro quo and hostile work environment,
 - What are ICC and LCC,
 - Limitation period as stated in the Act,
 - Complaint to be in writing with all the details of date, time and number of incidents occurred, to be mentioned properly in the complaint,
 - Settlement reached by ICC, also recorded in writing,
 - Emphasis should be on maintaining the confidentiality of the complainant and defendant.
5. Ms. Shipra Roy, who is a postgraduate in Economics from Delhi School of Economics, with experience in the social sector, conducted the next session. She has an experience in working with 'Ministry of Rural Development and Ministry of Agriculture' and currently is with

'Ministry of Women & Child Development', since 2013. She is responsible for various initiatives taken towards protection of women from sexual harassment at workplace, as within the Govt. machinery. Govt.'s initiative 'SHe-box', was discussed in detail, being an online complaint management system (Sexual Harassment Electronic Box), hosted on the Women and Child Development Ministry's website. This initiative also seeks to ensure 'effective implementation' of the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013. Once a complaint is submitted to 'SHe-Box', it is directly sent to Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) of the Ministry/Department/PSU/Autonomous body/etc. Concerned; having jurisdiction to inquire into the matter. ICC then takes action as prescribed under the Act and updates the status of the complaint. The portal is an effort to provide 'speedier remedy' to women facing sexual harassment at workplace, as envisaged under the Sexual Harassment Act. 255 complaints have been received since one year of its establishment.

Ms. Shipra also emphasised on the fact that the environment of one's workplace should be encouraging and supportive, especially when it comes to reporting of incidents of sexual harassment at workplace. Hence, there is need to generate awareness and conduct sensitisation programmes within organisations. When ICC fails to deal with a complaint, the Ministry asks for reports on the cases, which came through 'SHe-box' or through other means.

6. The last session of the first day of the workshop was conducted by Prof. (Dr.) Ritu Gupta, National Law University Delhi. Having a teaching experience of 18 years, she is an expert in Commercial and Business Laws and on 'Sexual Harassment at Workplace Laws'; having trained officials at Govt. and non-Govt. Offices, including Delhi Judicial Academy, Union Territory Civil Services, etc. She elucidated in details the various provisions of 'Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition & Redressal) Act, 2013', and that the tenure of ICC limited to 3 years. Provisions relating to District Officer u/s 5, LCC u/s 6 and filing of complaint u/s 7, were discussed. Section 10 and 11 of this Act stating conciliation and enquiry into the complaint were elaborated on. A brief of UGC guidelines regarding this Act were also discussed, for the next day.
7. The second day of the training session commenced with discussion by Prof. (Dr.) Vibha Tandon, Professor at 'Special Centre for Molecular Medicine', Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU), Delhi. She is recipient of various fellowships, like Fulbright Senior Research Fellowship and DAAD Fellowship; and authored three books in Molecular Modelling. Apart from her tremendous work in Molecular Medicines and Medicinal Chemistry, she has been involved with functioning of ICC at institutions she has worked with. Currently Chairperson, ICC, at Jawaharlal Nehru University Delhi, she discussed UGC guidelines regarding Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition & Redressal) Act, 2013. As per her experience, she stated that the very first time itself when the complaint is received by ICC, it should be complete with proper date and time mentioned. Also, ICC members should never propose reconciliation themselves and should take it in writing if the parties are agreeable for reconciliation. Student members of ICC are selected through the process of election for a period of one year.

She discussed that no videotaping of ICC proceedings should be allowed, as nothing relating to this is mentioned in the Act, 2013, or the UGC guidelines. Various forms by JNU made in matters of sexual harassment of workplace, created based on the guidelines of UGC and this Act, were also discussed and shared; all of the forms available on JNU's website.

3. Centre for Criminology and Victimology

Research Projects 2018:

- 'Evaluation of Functioning of Fast Track Courts in India - An Empirical Study'.

NLUD has been entrusted with this Research Project by the 'Department of Justice, Ministry of Law'. Fast track courts were set up on recommendation of the 11th Finance Commission in 2001, to deal with the pending cases and accumulating backlog; with special focus on cases that involved under-trials, for people in jail for over two years. Though this was planned to exist for five years, due to its efficient and decent performance with respect to the number of cases disposed, the scheme was extended till 2011.

Prof. G. S. Bajpai is the Principal Investigator for this study.

- 'Hate Crimes - Prejudices and Violence faced by People from North Eastern States and Measures to Counter - An Empirical Study'.

The 'Indian Council of Social Science Research', New Delhi, entrusted this Research Project to NLUD. The present study premises on the escalating trend of cases of prejudice and violence against people belonging to the Northeast regions; forming what we call 'hate crimes'. Cases of murders of Nido Tania (Arunachal Pradesh), Souloni Akha (Manipur), suspicious death of Richard Loitam (Manipur), attempted rape and murder of Ramchanphy Hongray (Nagaland), all represent the violent intolerance in various metro cities towards the North Eastern. These daily instances of hatred, culminating into serious acts of violence-need a serious and thorough probing, to arrive at objective information and data on this subject.

Hence, this study attempts to map the experiences and vulnerabilities of people from the Northeast regions residing in metro cities; through their interactions with educational institutions, work places, market places and residence vicinities. Data for this study would be collected, based on various aspects of prejudice, violence and intolerance against Northeast people. This would be based in the following states: Delhi, Mumbai, Chennai, Hyderabad, Pune and Bengaluru, with a total sample number of 1200 cases (Approx. 200 cases from every city). A dedicated project team is assigned to work on the data collection.

Prof. G. S. Bajpai is the Principal Investigator for this study.

Research Projects 2018:

- Regulation of Digital Markets in the Context of Big Data, AI, and IoT

The world is increasingly witnessing a shift to online platforms and online shopping, which can be attributed to the exponential rise in the use of information technology, smart phones, and the proliferation of Artificial Intelligence (AI) and data-driven technologies. However, this shift also poses many unprecedented challenges for antitrust/competition law. While framing policies with regard to regulation of digital markets, even some of the basic concepts like dominance, abuse of dominance, and collusion between undertakings may have to be revisited. To ensure appropriate levels of regulation of digital markets by the State, one may have to take an evidence-based approach. Unfortunately, many of the current policy discussions and regulatory interventions are ignoring this important aspect. This project will primarily look at competition issues in two areas: (1) App Store market for mobile devices and (2) Algorithmic bias in online services. This discussion assumes special significance in the light of the recent decisions of the Competition Commission of India (CCI) in the Google case and also the decision of the European Commission in the Android case.

- IP in Agri-Biotech in India (2018-2019)

India has been witnessing an ongoing boom in the field of Biotechnology and the Agricultural space. This growth has raised key questions relating to the nature of regulations on such technologies by the concerned authorities; the balance between proprietary technology and patent laws, pricing of genetically modified seeds, etc. Of singular importance is the recent ruling of the Division Bench of Delhi High Court, which revoked the patent on BT Cotton Technology, owned by Monsanto, an American agricultural biotechnology corporation. It used to license the technology, to seed companies in India. Similarly, the ongoing investigation against Monsanto by the Competition Commission of India, raises serious concerns regarding the application of anti-trust theories and the threshold required under the Competition Law of India. Monsanto is charged with alleged abuse of its dominant position and using stipulations in the technology licensing agreements, having an appreciable adverse effect on competition.

The project aims to study the abovementioned components as a part of its research by focusing on the Monsanto litigation in India. The Principal Investigator is Mr. Yogesh Pai and Research Fellow is Ms. Khushbu Kumari.

- CIPAM - L2Pro Content Development Project (2018-2019)

Generating and disseminating awareness about intellectual property among a new generation of start-ups and SMEs is crucial for encouraging innovation and entrepreneurship. CIIPC has undertaken the L2Pro (Learn to Protect) content development project in collaboration with Center for IPR Promotion and Management (CIPAM), a unit of Department of Industrial Policy & Promotion (DIPP), Government of India and Qualcomm Inc. This course aims to simplify IP protection and enforcement, by creating an interactive and engaging learning experience with maximised learning outcomes. The target audience are entrepreneurs, start-up founders, and individuals from SMEs; who can learn to acquire, protect, and commercialise their intellectual property without battling with complications associated with IP practice. However, anyone desirous of learning about IP can take this course, as there are no pre-requisites in terms of education or professional experience.

The course is divided into three levels (Basic, Intermediate, and Advanced), in terms of difficulty and subject matter. It is a free and open access course, available to anyone with a computer or mobile device and an internet connection. It is designed by considering the advantages of MOOCS (Massive Open Online Courses). To broaden the scope of learning, the course is initially being launched in English, with translation in Hindi. The Principal Investigator is Mr. Yogesh Pai and Research Fellow is Ms. Pragya Chaturvedi.

Activities Undertaken:

- The Fair Trial Fellowship Programme

Project 39A, conceptualised and organised the 'Fair Trial Fellowship programme', for young lawyers and social workers, to assist the legal aid lawyers in providing effective legal representation. This was for the under-trial prisoners lodged in Pune and Nagpur Central Prison. The programme trained and mentored a group of young professionals to work in collaboration with the 'State Legal Services Authority', towards ensuring fair trial for these prisoners at both pre-trial and trial stages.

- Mental Health Research Project

This is an ongoing nationwide study on the mental health of prisoners, sentenced to death, in India. It is the first of its kind, empirical and descriptive study, to take a medico-social approach towards the mental health of death row prisoners in India. The project was conceived out of the need to collect accurate data on death row prisoners, in order to broaden the current sphere of knowledge on death penalty. Approx. 100 death row prisoners and their families have been interviewed; across prisons in Delhi, Madhya Pradesh, Chhattisgarh, Kerala and Karnataka.

- Trial Court Sentencing Project

This study with its doctrinal roots, attempts to understand the compliance to the 'rarest of rare' doctrine by trial courts. It also critically engages with the evolution of the doctrine from the original meaning assigned to it by the Supreme Court in Bachan Singh. Sentencing practices of the trial courts are then juxtaposed with the first principles of criminal law to present an evaluated picture of trial court sentencing in India. The project is looking at three death penalty heavy states of Maharashtra, Madhya Pradesh and Delhi, analysing 214 trial court judgments from 2000-2015, where death sentence was imposed. The project is currently in its report-writing phase, which is expected to release by June 2019.

- Litigation

A crucial learning from the Death Penalty Research Project was the dearth of quality legal representation for death row prisoners. Hence, one of the earliest tasks undertaken by Project 39A was securing quality pro bono legal representation for indigent death row prisoners; our litigation team comprising of 7 litigation and 1 mitigation associates; involved in cases of over 80 prisoners sentenced to death across 13 states. The sentences of seven prisoners sentenced to death, who were represented by us, were commuted to life imprisonment of different kinds by the Supreme Court. While we currently practice predominantly in the Supreme Court, our litigation is expanding to providing assistance in cases in various High Courts on issues such as, access to prisoners' health records, urging juvenility claims, and improper rejections of mercy petitions. To provide a nuanced understanding of prisoners' backgrounds, we seek advice from experts in related fields such as social work, psychiatry, and developmental psychology.

Assistance to Courts:

- Project 39A filed an intervening application (I. A. No. 26542 of 2018) in the pending PIL, Re: Inhuman Conditions (Writ Petition (Civil) No. 406 of 2013). The judgment reiterated that prisoners sentenced to death cannot be put in solitary or segregated confinement and have to be treated as other prisoners. It also recognised for the first time the right of prisoners sentenced to death to meet mental health professionals.
- Project 39A currently represents 80 prisoners sentenced to death in the Supreme Court and High Courts. This includes prisoners lodged in prisons of the following states: Delhi, Uttar Pradesh, Bihar, West Bengal, Tamil Nadu, Kerala, Karnataka, Maharashtra, Punjab, Haryana, Madhya Pradesh, Chattisgarh, and Uttarakhand.
- The Project earned commutations to life imprisonments of different kinds for seven prisoners sentenced to death in the Supreme Court in 2018.

Legal Services Committee

Paralegal Volunteer Training Programme, April 2018

Prior to becoming fully qualified lawyers, law students can make a difference as Paralegal volunteers. In order to empower students to participate in legal aid activities, the Legal Services Committee collaborated with the Delhi State Legal Services Authority and successfully conducted a Paralegal Training. This training programme was designed to help students develop a functional and applicable understanding of the legal and judicial system; as well as to acquaint with the laws that affect individuals in their everyday life and to impart elementary skills in accessing legal and judicial institutions. It meant to develop a cadre of 'barefoot lawyers' for legal services, to strengthen the legal aid delivery system by bridging the gap between the most vulnerable and the legal system, and to increase the usage of public advocacy.

The Committee successfully facilitated PLV training in April 2018, and National Law University Delhi, now has around 100 Para-Legal Volunteers.

3rd GNLU Legal Services Clinic Award, April 2018

The Committee participated in the 3rd GNLU Legal Services Award 2018, organised in April 2018 at Gujarat National Law University, Gandhinagar. Tanaya Rajwade, Siddharth Gautam and Pritam Raman Giriya presented committee's work to Judges and legal aid clinics from across the country, and to other student members. It contributed in building a network with legal aid clinics and promoting our work at such a platform. The Report submitted, shortlisted for final presentation at GNLU, can be accessed online.

HRLN-LSC Kathputli Colony Petitions, August 2018 onwards

Kathputli Colony houses street performers in the Shadipur area of Delhi, with almost 2800 families, making it World's largest community of street performers. In November 2017, Delhi Development Authority displaced over 2800 families from their homes and shifted to a transit camp. Out of these 2800 families, around 771 families were declared ineligible for any kind of rehabilitation measures, without any reasonable grounds.

Human Rights Law Network (HRLN) intervening into the matter filed PILs, which are pending before the Delhi High Court. Currently, out of these 771 cases, around 300 cases were appealed and dismissed by the DDA, which is an appellate body for the same. These cases were to be filed before the Delhi High Court within a month.

The Legal Services Committee assisted HRLN in drafting these petitions, guiding them to complete the large number, to be filed in a short span of time. 25 students (including members of the Committee and other student volunteers from the University) drafted over 50 Writ Petitions, contributing instrumentally to the matter. Filing of these Writ Petitions is to ensure that the parties on the verge of eviction, are not immediately displaced by the DDA. These petitions, as of November 2018, are pending before the Delhi High Court.

Collaboration with National Human Rights Commission, November 2018 onwards

This collaboration is to study the living conditions of the inmates at Rohini Jail; further to follow up on cases that require Legal Assistance. It is an ongoing project and the Committee is in process of constituting a dedicated panel of Paralegal Volunteers. They would be responsible for the coming future, for projects related to prison fieldwork, including the above.

Legal Awareness and Community Outreach Programme

The Committee has always recognised the need to engage with the Community at large. The Committee, in 2018, to increase awareness and to disseminate knowledge about legal aid among the masses, and to inform people about the Clinic; made and put posters and distributed flyers in Dwarka and in suburbs surrounding Dwarka. The posters focussed on various issues such as women's rights, domestic violence, free legal aid, right to information, consumer rights, labour laws, etc. The Committee designed pamphlets, which on distribution will inform people about their legal issues, and are based on legislations that provide additional rights to people. These also contain information on Right to Education Act, Consumer Protection Act, relevant labour laws, etc.

The Committee organised and enacted street plays in the surrounding areas near Dwarka on preventive detention, consumer awareness, labour laws, women's rights and equal justice and free legal aid. Members of Indian People's Theatre Association guided in developing of scripts and executing these plays through workshops with the student participants. Prior to every play, students distributed pamphlets in their locality and post performance, held a session (15 minutes) to take feedback and people's grievances. These plays were appreciated in creating awareness in people.

Legal Aid Clinic

Established in November 2012 by National Law University Delhi, this pursues cases of people seeking legal counsel. In pursuit of this, the Committee set up a dedicated office space on the campus premises; wherein 11 nominated and elected members of the Committee manage it. The Clinic has its own helpline number operated by student members of the Committee, on a rotation basis. Anyone can contact the Clinic as the number has been advertised on-the University website and in areas near the University.

The Clinic is also affiliated with the South-West Delhi Legal Services Authority (DLSA-SW), which sends a lawyer once every week. The Committee members fix appointments with them on behalf of the clients who have contacted the helpline, for their grievances and legal advice. In case of a problem needing representation, another State Legal Services Authority lawyer, experienced in that type of cases, is appointed.

Either the term of the lawyer is renewed or a new lawyer is appointed every two months by the DLSA-SW. The Committee members aid the lawyer by helping-file complaints, write letters to authorities, send RTIs, apply for certificates online, etc. The Committee additionally refers the cases to other lawyers, who are involved in pro bono services; and provide assistance in research and drafting work, approaching authorities and attending court proceedings. Recently, the Committee referred clients to be represented at High Court and District Courts.

The Committee handles a wide range of cases including inter alia domestic violence, consumer issues, fraudulent and cheating, property and land disputes, matters related to sexual offences, motor vehicle accidents, service matters, etc.

All the calls are attended to and case details noted down; while members also give primary counselling, note down grievances, and then brief the lawyer. During the counselling by the lawyer, Committee members note details regarding the case and its follow up if any.

Pro bono Panel

The Committee has been constituting this Panel since November 2017. At present, it consists of: Mr. Jawahar Raja (Advocate, practising at the Supreme Court, Delhi High Court, and various courts and tribunals across Delhi), Mr. Deepak Biswas (Partner, Bharucha and Partners) and Mr. Nipun Saxena (Advocate, practising at the Delhi High Court, and various courts and tribunals across Delhi). Four cases have been referred to them by the Legal Aid Clinic, which were actively followed up by the Committee members. The Committee members actively participate in client counselling and representation at court, alongside these lawyers.

Advisory Panel

This panel consists of faculty members of National Law University Delhi, from various streams of law, with the aim of ensuring better utilisation of resources available on campus, i.e. the faculty. Faculty that possesses expertise, experience and practical knowledge in their respective Law fields. This model can be replicated by other law schools facing a paucity of resources. This arrangement contributed in giving immediate advice to clients that could not wait for an entire week to meet the government lawyer. This Panel is instrumental in providing and checking the content of our legal literacy and awareness materials.

Labour Laws Intervention

For Employment Benefits:

Since the establishment of the Clinic, the Committee has taken efforts to engage with the non-teaching staff on labour issues, like bonus, overtime wages, provident fund, etc. The Committee has regularly intervened in matters of employment whenever required, engaging with both, the University administration as well as the intermediate contractors to check compliances. The Committee proactively intervenes to ensure labour law compliances on case-to-case basis as well as for framing general policies for improving the working conditions of the staff. To quote an example, the Committee worked with the University administration as well as the Mess contractor to regularise and limit the working hours for mess workers.

Cafeteria Workers

The Committee made an intervention regarding contract to run the University cafeteria, shuffled amongst various contractors. The cafeteria workers faced this constant possibility of unemployment following takeover by a new contractor. The Committee engaged with both the administration and new contractors, to ensure job security and favourable working conditions for the workers. They got the administration to make 'retention of cafeteria staff', a condition for securing the contract. The Committee regularly interacts with them ensuring optimum working conditions and labour law compliances.

Labour Audit

The Committee conducted a labour audit on campus to check labour law compliances. They verified relevant documents of all workers and demanded documentation from various contractors. The report made, was forwarded to the administration, who further on that basis addressed the concerns raised. Various recommendations made by the Committee were approved by rectifying the existing problems, of non-compliance with statutory requirements by the contractors, like Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition) Act 1970, Delhi Shops and Establishments Act 1954, Employees' Provident Funds and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952.

Current Projects

Registration under Labour Contracts and Move towards Regularisation of Contracts

The Committee post the labour audit found an issue of non-registration of several stakeholders under various labour law regulations; the consequence of which was absence of written contracts between various contractors and employees. Subsequently, leading to minor irregularities in provident fund benefits, timely payment of wages, working hours, grant of leave, etc. Recently, the Committee got the contractors to register under necessary regulations. It is now in pursuance of them drafting written contracts for the concerned staff. The compliance of laws are viewed under the following legislations:

List of Legislations

1. Industrial Disputes Act 1947, along with the Central Rules, 1957
2. Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Act, 1946 along with the (Standing Orders Rules, 1946)

Report Launch: Perspectives of Justice - Restorative Justice and Child Sexual Abuse in India, March 17, 2018

The Centre for Criminology & Victimology (CCV) National Law University Delhi and Centre to Secure Justice (CSJ) launched their Research Study on "Perspectives of Justice - Restorative Justice and Child Sexual Abuse in India" at the India International Centre, New Delhi. Social activists, Lawyers, and Human Rights' workers including Ms. Stuti Kacher, Chairperson, NCPCR and Sh. Ramesh Negi, Chairperson, DCPCR, attended the event. This research makes a strong case for using 'Restorative Justice Techniques', in cases of child sexual abuse in India. As an empirical study focussing on children survivors, family members, police officials, Juvenile Justice Board Members, lawyers, and community members; it brings out the voices presenting different perspectives of justice, based on their ideologies and backgrounds.

The study also presents a powerful critique of the legal regime of POSCO and its failure in effectively addressing the concerns of survivors, instead restoring the harm done to victims and their relationships. Through the data collected from fieldwork, the study highlights importance of the role of communities in mobilising resources, for the peaceful resolution of crime done to the victim. The 'Restorative Justice Model', shows facilitating offenders in putting their apology and expressing regret towards the harm done to the victims. National Law University Delhi and Centre to Secure Justice together conceived and collaborated this 'first of its kind study in India', which is going to be a significant contribution in exploring the alternative ways of dealing with survivors, offenders and child sexual abuse.

Christmas Ball

National Law University celebrated an eventful evening with the 'Christmas Ball', on December 28, 2018. This was in the spirit of keeping alive the University's mantra of having lighthearted and fun-filled days, in the midst of study and work to help students unwind and enjoy. There was a DJ at the event, along with a purposely curated Christmas-themed-playlist for slow dancing. The food enthusiasts had many food stalls catering to their tastes, along with an IDIA fundraising stall offering games and goodies, and homemade brownies prepared by the girls of the second year. This was also the day, wherein students revealed themselves to their Secret Santa, an activity going on in the week preceding this ball.

The event intended towards facilitating and improving both intra and inter-batch bonding; bringing together students from various programmes and batches, involved together in multitude of activities.

Dandiya Night

Dandiya is a dance celebrated during the period of Navaratri, a festival spanning nine-days dedicated to the worship and reverence of Goddess Durga. The word Navaratri literally meaning nine nights in Sanskrit, was celebrated via a Dandiya Night event at the University, on October 17, 2018. The campus was aesthetically adorned with lights and decorations; while students dressed in vibrant, traditional attires, befitting to the occasion. The event commenced at the auditorium, with students displaying their talents through performances in traditional songs and dances. This was later followed by activities outside that included a DJ, to get people on the dance floor with their Dandiya sticks, and capture the true essence of Dandiya Night. There were multiple food stalls to make the night more memorable.

At the University, we celebrate almost all the major festivals with the aim to make students from all parts of the country feel at home, and to introduce the international students to Indian culture and traditions. To this effect, the above celebration spanned over 4 hours, achieving the goal, of bringing diversities together towards a common celebration.

Annual Cultural Festival, Kairos

National Law University Delhi, conducts multitude of extra-curricular activities throughout the year; believing in the integration of the academic with the co-curricular as a holistic way of education. The most awaited of them all is the Annual Cultural Festival. Held on March 13, 2018, this intra-University fest promises learning, healthy competition, and intermingling for all the students. In this spirit, various competitions were organised to elevate an environment of growth and gaiety, through dancing, singing, drama, and poetry. The festivities concluded late in the night with 'Silent Disco' being the cynosure of the whole event. We intend Kairos to be a customised event that caters to the likings of everyone, offering a gamut of eateries for the food connoisseurs to a DJ for even those having two left feet.

The hard work and efforts of the Cultural Committee are laudable, who were assisted by volunteers, working endlessly towards this event for its success. Little colourful trinkets and huge wall paintings adorned the whole campus catching the attention of every passerby. The event was an overall success.

Sports Achievements

Sports integrate the physical with the mental, emotional and social, and are highly imperative as a constant source of reinvigoration and restoring balance within the self and with people around. The Sports Committee, 2018 onwards is working towards creating a more nurturing and fostering atmosphere for sports, of all kinds.

NLU Matches

The Committee sent a contingent to NLU Odisha, where the NLUD teams performed very well, even winning three medals, including one in volleyball.

Sovereign Cup 5th Edition

It also organised the bi-annual Sovereign Cup 5th edition, with the faculty giving a tough competition to the other team comprising of students from all batches. We are proud of curating this unique concept of teachers playing with the taught. Which is the whole point of this exercise and that is how this cricket match works, by bringing together people from all strata of life working with each other; competing but also collaboratively learning and having fun.

While the students' team won, yet they had a hard time gaining victory with the faculty's score closer to them than expected.

Strong Alone, Stronger United

The Committee also conducted matches between the incoming batch of students and the rest of the existing batches, for a variety of sports like volleyball, basketball, football, etc. This fosters intermingling and breaking the ice between new and old students, facilitating friendship and solidarity within themselves to work towards common goals.

Girl's Hostel Gym Project
