

Accepted Papers for Student International Conference

Shari'ah Governance: A solution to Corporate Governance Problem

Yashfeen Ali and Areeba Khan, Ph. D scholars, AMU, UP

Conceptualizing Citizens Involvement in Governance:

Kamna Sagar, Ph. D scholar

Social Responsibility of Banking Institutions: A Comparative Study:

Prerna- Research Associate, Lloyd College

Corporate Governance: A comparison between Anglo US model, Japanese model and German model:

Mohd Iftikhar Baig, Research Scholar, Mizoram University

Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR): Towards Inclusive Social Development?:

Rinki Dahiya and Priya Dahiya, Research Scholar, DU

Indian Constitution Binds the National Auditor to Discover Where Eighty- Five Paise Goes:

Bhupal Singh, Ph. D scholar, Amity University, Noida

Mitigating White-Collar Crimes: A Governance Reform Agend:

Rakesh Kumar Sehgal, Ph. D scholar, Amity Law School

Corporate Responsibility to Protect Human Rights : An Approach Towards Sustainable Development:

Indra Nath Dey, Research Scholar, WBNUJS

Information Asymmetry, Corporate Disclosure Regime and Insider Trading in Financial Markets:

Shilpi Nanda, Ph.D Research Scholar, Faculty of Law, National University of Singapore

Ecological Consumer Behaviour: Attitude & Pro-environment Behaviours in India:

Kailash Bharti Goswami, Ph.D Scholar, D.S.B. Campus, Kumaun University Nainital, Uttarakhand India and Padam Singh Bisht, Professor, Kumaun University

Corruption and Recalcitrance in Universities: A Case Study of Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi:

David Pradhan, Senior Research Fellow, School of International Studies, Jawaharlal Nehru University

Corporate Governance and Sustainability and Its Relation With CSR:

Bharat Sharma, LL.M. Student in Law Faculty, Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi

AI and the Law: Legal & Fraud Prevention Issues :

Sadaf Fahim and Ankita Sangwan

The Interaction of Religion and CSR : Narratives from the Field:

Priyanka Chhaparia, Ph.D. Scholar, Department of Humanities and Social Sciences. IIT Kanpur and Dr. Munmun Jha, Professor, Sociology, Department of Humanities and Social Sciences, IIT Kanpur

Role of Derivative Action Lawsuits in the context of Indian Corporate Governance:

Debaranjan Goswami, Fifth Year student, National law University Delhi

Social responsibility investment: An en-route to attain social responsibility objectives by the corporates:

Chetna Rath, CS Professional Student and JRF Research Scholar at Department of Commerce (School of Management), Pondicherry University CS Azhaguraja.N, Associate Member of ICSI and JRF Research Scholar at Department of Commerce (School of Management), Pondicherry University, and Dr. Malabika Deo, Professor & Head, Department of Commerce, School of Management, Pondicherry University

Institutional lapses and Bank Frauds: India's struggle to rein in venal bankers:

Yuvnesh Sharma & Shubham Aggarwal, Students, NLUD