

09.12.2017

Centre for Transnational Commercial Law (CTCL)
National Law University Delhi

CALL FOR INTERNS (January 2018)

CALL FOR RESEARCHER

- A. The Centre for Transnational Commercial Law (CTCL) invites applications for Internship in the Centre for Law students who are primarily interested in Research in the area of commercial and insolvency laws. A good understanding of contracts and corporate law will be expected. No stipend will be paid. The candidates will make their own arrangement for stay. Previous Experience of Research will be a priority. There will be only five positions in this internship. The duration will be for One Month, commencing for the month of January 2018.
- B. The Centre for Transnational Commercial Law (CTCL) invites applications for ONE position of Researcher in the Centre. Researcher will be required to work and assist the centre in the area of commercial and insolvency laws. A good understanding of contracts and corporate law will be expected. Honorarium will be Rs. 12,500/- per month. The minimum requirement for application is a degree in Law. LLM in Business Laws will be a desirable qualification. The candidates will make their own arrangement for stay. Previous Experience of Research will be a priority. The duration will be for SIX Months, commencing from the month of January 2018.

Please email a statement of purpose on why you are interested to work with the Centre for Transnational Commercial Law (CTCL), in around 500 words with your CV at ctcl@nludelhi.ac.in The last date for Applications is December 22, 2017 (Friday). (Selections/ Interviews are likely during 26-27 Dec.)

Director

Centre for Transnational Commercial Law