

Call for Application: Project Coordinators

Centre for Criminology and Victimology, National Law University Delhi is looking to hire suitable candidates for the position of Project Coordinator(s) in a project titled “Crime Against Women Through technology (Transport and Crime : An Account of Crimes against Women in cabs in the Delhi/NCR Region” funded by National Commission for Women.

No. of Posts:

Two (1 full time; 1 part time)

Qualifications required:

1. (Full time - Project Coordinator)
  - Masters’ degree in Criminology or law
2. (Part time – Project Coordinator)
  - Masters’ degree in Criminology or law
  - Minimum three years of work experience in carrying out desk-based and field research on social issues or policy impacts
  - Knowledge of running web-based crowd funding platforms will be an added advantage.

Skills sought:

- Qualitative and data-based research on development and social issues.
- Coordination of documentation of program’s work in a form that can be used across different media.
- Proficiency in analytical and research writing in English.
- Familiarity with Microsoft office (including word, excel), emails and use of Internet.
- Familiarity with different research tools will be useful.

Terms of Reference:

Designation: Project Coordinator (full time) Location: New Delhi

1. Collating and analysing data.
2. Coordinating process documentation of cases related to crime against women through technology.
3. Any other tasks mutually agreed upon during the project work.

Contract period:

Eighteen months

Remuneration:

Rs.15000/- per month

Interested candidates can share their CV at : ccv@nludelhi.ac.in latest by 25th January, 2020.

The CV should include name and contact details of two references.

Shortlisted candidates will be invited for interview.