

1.11.2019

Call for Researcher
at
Theodore Eisenberg Centre for Empirical Legal Research and Centre for Criminology & Victimology, NLU Delhi

The Theodore Eisenberg Centre for Empirical Legal Research and Centre for Criminology & Victimology, NLU Delhi, propose to undertake a nationwide study to document and survey the state of legal research with special focus on Empirical Legal Research for the past 20 years in different law teaching institutions in the country.

To work on this project, it is intended to hire a Researcher, possessing LL.M. qualification with reasonable research experience. The duration of this Project will be for 6 months. A suitable honorarium in lumpsum will be paid on the conclusion of the Project. Part time working is also allowed in this Project. Interested candidate who have strong inclination in legal research and possess exemplary skills in English language are requested to submit their CV along with Statement of Purpose focussing on legal research at ccv@nludelhi.ac.in latest by 18th November, 2019.

Project Director