

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS – INTERNSHIP WITH THE COMMITTEE FOR REFORMS IN CRIMINAL LAWS (FULL-TIME)

ABOUT THE COMMITTEE:

The Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India has constituted a Committee to recommend reforms in criminal laws in India. The Committee seeks to review criminal laws in a principled, effective and efficient manner, informed by constitutional values of justice, dignity and the inherent worth of the individual. Towards this end, the Committee is being supported by Subject-Area Experts, Researchers and Interns.

POSITION:

The Centre is looking to engage full-time interns, for both offline and online roles, to support research and ancillary activities of the Committee.

DURATION:

The duration of the internship is for four months (initially for a period of two months + extendable by another two months, subject to performance), starting immediately.

RESPONSIBILITY:

- 1.The interns shall primarily be required to conduct research in the areas of Criminal Law, including the Indian Penal Code 1860, the Code of Criminal Procedure 1973 and the Indian Evidence Act 1872, under the supervision and guidance of Committee Members and Research team associated with the Committee.
- 2.The interns will additionally be involved with other activities of the Committee including the organisation of consultations and meetings with various stakeholders.
3. Since this is a full-time role, candidates are expected to work for a minimum of 6 hours daily.

CRITERIA FOR SELECTION:

1. CGPA/Percentage.
2. Publication(s).
3. Previous internships.
- 4. The internship is only open to the students in the 4th/ 5th year of a five-year integrated LL.B. Programme/ final year of a three-year LL.B. Programme/ LL.M candidates with specialization in Criminal Law.
5. Students in 1st, 2nd and 3rd year of the five-year integrated LL.B. Programme and 1st and 2nd year of the three-year LL.B. Programme need not apply.
6. Preference will be given to those candidates who are willing to work in offline mode.

APPLICATION PROCESS:

All Applicants are required to apply by 11th October 2020, 11.59 PM latest. Applications beyond this date and time will not be considered.

The applicants are required to submit their CV, a Statement of Purpose (maximum 400 words) and a writing sample (published/unpublished, sole authorship, preferably on Criminal Law) to intern-ccv@nludelhi.ac.in with the subject 'Application for Internship: Committee for Reforms in Criminal Law'. Mention your preferred mode of internship – whether offline and online, in the body of the mail.

The interns shall be informed of their selection via email. Please note that only successful candidates will be contacted.

NOTE:

1. National Law University Delhi is an equal opportunity employer.
2. Provision of stipend is subject to exceptional performance.
- 3. Please note that only successful candidates will be contacted.
4. In case of offline mode of internship, interns will be required to carry their personal Laptops.
5. Please direct any queries to intern-ccv@nludelhi.ac.in.