National Law University Delhi, India

The Organizers:

National Law University, Delhi (NLUD) established in 2008 by Act No.1 of 2008 of National Capital Territory of Delhi and with the initiative of High Court of Delhi, is a premier Law University established in India. The vision of the University is to create a Global Legal Institution which will compete with the best outside India and to prepare lawyers for a legal career that introduces them to wide range of opportunities in legal profession across the globe. The University is offering the five year integrated B.A., LL.B. (Hons.) Programme from the year 2008 and the LL.M., Ph.D. and P.G. diploma programme from the year 2011.

Centre for Transparency and Accountability in Governance:

Centre for Transparency and Accountability in Governance, National Law University Delhi has been constituted to uphold the commitment of the rule of law and good governance. The Centre emphasizes on sensitizing people on transparency and accountability in governance; empowering people such as students, lawyers, & public officials to contribute effectively to ensure transparency and accountability in governance; and creating and promoting quality research in the area of transparency and accountability in governance. The Centre also provides, for free of cost consultative services, training, sensitization and promotion on RTI, Labour and Industrial Laws and other governance related issues. The Centre also has organised national and International Conferences on good governance and corruption issues.

National Academy of Law Teachers:

NLUD has established National Academy of Law Teachers (NALT) to improve quality of teaching and research in Law and other Social Sciences. The NALT, since its inception, has been promoting and protecting teaching-learning methodology for the purposes of training/grooming faculty members for the quality teaching, research and curriculum development across the nation. Keeping in view the Charter of objectives of the NALT sought to be achieved, the NALT has been organising orientation, refresher and capacity building programmes for teachers on law and social sciences courses involving professionals/ experts from India and Abroad.

Objectives of the Programme:

The CTAG and NALT is organising a seven days programme on “Capacity Development Programme for Teachers on Advanced Labour and Industrial Laws” (12-18 Dec 2016). Labour and Industrial Law teaching in India generally lacks orientation and is also affected by curriculum issues, approach to teaching and standardization of course material. Labour and Industrial Laws in India is taught at various levels, which includes a few independent departments, or as part of teaching in law. This interdisciplinary subject has tremendous potential to contribute for policy and other applied objectives.

The following are the key objectives of this Capacity Building programme:-

1. To identify the thrust areas in the teaching and research in Labour and Industrial Laws.
2. To critically assess the existing status of teaching practices in Labour and Industrial Laws and to evolve effective alternatives.
3. To develop innovative policy in imparting practical skills in selected components of Labour and Industrial Laws.
4. To discuss and analyse the teaching-learning methodology for Labour and Industrial Laws
5. To look into the existing curriculum of Labour and Industrial Laws and to carry out the required approximation in its contents.
6. To identify the priority areas of empirical research in Advanced Labour and Industrial Laws.
7. To sensitize teachers/professionals on law and practice of Advanced Labour and Industrial Laws
