CALL FOR APPLICATIONS -RESEARCH ASSISTANT (PART-TIME)

The National Law University Delhi ('University'), through its Centre for Innovation, IP and Competition (CIIPC), is seeking to engage a Research Assistant (Part-time) in law for research project titled "Legal Roadmap for Non-Personal Data Governance in India: A Study with a Special Focus on Intellectual Property, Competition, Regulatory and the Data Security Dimension". The project has been supported by the National Foundation for Corporate Governance (NFCG).

About CIIPC

CIIPC at NLU Delhi was established with the aim of supporting academic and policy oriented dialogues in the areas of innovation, IP and competition. CIIPC focuses on interdisciplinary legal research in the areas of innovation, IP and competition, particularly using the law and economics approach. The Centre aims to discuss contemporary issues of fundamental and empirical nature, conduct legal and policy training in innovation, IP and competition and build a network of scholars in these areas.

About the project:

The overall objective is to propose a legal roadmap for Non-Personal Data Governance in India in order to enable policy makers to optimise regulatory interventions in the context of data driven industries in the context of data-sharing requirements.

Principal Investigator:

- Dr Yogesh Pai, Associate Professor (Law), NLU Delhi

Role of Research Assistant

- Extensive legal and interdisciplinary literature review
- Survey Design and conducting field research
- Writing and editing of research papers, reports, policy responses, and other publications.
- Minimum duration of 125 man-hours of research.
- Requirement to conduct up to 45 man-hours of empirical (field) work in India through physical meetings.

Expected skills:

- Demonstrated prior interest in legal questions
- Strong qualitative data analysis skills
- Prior experience in reading/ writing in the subject area (i.e. Intellectual Property)
- Prior experience with academic writing and communication skills
