FROM THE DESK OF THE VICE CHANCELLOR

I am happy to present this issue of the University Newsletter which highlights the academic activities and the diverse achievements of the faculty and the students of the University.

National Law University, Delhi is a premier Law University established in 2008 by the Government of NCT of Delhi at the initiative of the High Court of Delhi and is involved in teaching and research in law and allied disciplines. The mandate and vision of the University is to create a legal education centre of global standards which will compete with the best outside India and to prepare lawyers for a legal career that introduces them to wide range of opportunities in the legal profession across the globe. The University has state of the art infrastructure with an excellent library and comprehensive print electronic resources to support legal research and scholarship.

Keeping this vision in mind, the University was involved in several flagship programmes. The Research Centres of the University is involved in cutting edge research in the areas of contemporary relevance like laws governing internet and telecommunication, transparency in governance, Corporate Law, labour issues in informal sector, banking & financial laws, death row prisoners, sexual offences, etc. In pursuance of its commitment towards holistic development of legal education, the University has established and is now successfully running the National Academy of Law Teachers (NALT). NALT has a mandate to provide training in the areas like entry level orientation, curriculum development, teaching and learning, research and innovation, ICT and Digital research. This Year the Academy has successfully conducted several training programmes on Corporate Law, Labour Law and ADR Methods. University has also conducted GIAN courses in collaboration with the MHRD, Govt. of India.

The University hosted several international and national conferences and moot court competitions on newly emerging areas of law to be the pioneer in developing the jurisprudence for these subjects.

Legal Education in India has undergone a paradigm shift in the last two decades and the University has played a key role in shaping these changes while preparing students, teachers and young advocates for emerging challenges and to solve existing ones with a clear vision and most importantly, a belief that it could be achieved.

I extend a warm welcome to the tenth batch of students to the NLU Delhi family!

DISTINCTIONS & HONOURS

Universal Periodic Review Project

The Ministry of External Affairs, Government of India, requested the National Law University, Delhi to assist in the preparation of India's National Report for the 3rd round of the Universal Periodic Review. The 27th Session of the Universal Periodic Review (UPR) Working Group was held from 1 - 12 May 2017 at the UN Human Rights Council (UNHRC) in Geneva. During this session, the Attorney General of India, Shri Mukul Rohtagi presented the India's National Report for the Universal Periodic Review - III in May, 2016 at Geneva, Switzerland followed by presentation of Prof. (Dr.) Ranbir Singh on overview of unique exercise of UPR undertaken by NLU, Delhi.

Prof. (Dr.) Ranbir Singh was part of high level delegation of government of India led by Attorney General of India. Prof. (Dr.) Ranbir Singh had also prepared the India's National Report for the First in 2008, while he was the Vice-Chancellor of NALSAR University of Law, Hyderabad. The Second UPR has also been prepared by Prof. (Dr.) Ranbir Singh and his team at National Law University, Delhi on behalf of Ministry of External Affairs and Govt. of India.

National Institute Ranking Framework (NIRF)

In a function held at Vigyan Bhawan, HRD Minister released the Report ranking the Universities in the Country, NLU received 71 Rank out of 3800 odd Universities who were assessed by the HRD Ministry under National Institute Ranking Framework.

The NLU's performance is phenomenal as it has been made to compete with general universities unlike the IITs, IIMs, Pharmacy, who were placed in a separate professional categories for ranking purpose. Secondly, NLU is the only law university to have been included in the top 100 clubs. This is after receiving remarkable score of 3.59 from NAAC. This is incredible for a University with just 08 years of existence. This achievement of the University is dedicated to its collectivism and exemplary leadership.

Centre for Death Penalty

The Death Penalty India Report 2016, based on nearly three years of fieldwork with all prisoners under the sentence of death and their families, was released in May 2016 at the Nehru Memorial Museum and Library. During 2016, the Centre on the Death Penalty, building on the foundations of the Death Penalty Research Project, deepened its engagement with the administration of the death penalty. The Centre is currently involved in the pro bono legal representation of 60 prisoners sentenced to death (imprisoned across 12 States) before the Supreme Court and High Courts. In September 2016, the Centre was instrumental in the complete acquittal and release of Dhal Singh by the Supreme Court (a death row prisoner who had spent around 4 years in Raipur Central Prison). The Centre was also involved in proceedings that resulted in the commutation of death sentences of 4 prisoners before the Supreme Court. Besides litigation, the Centre has undertaken three significant research projects expanding on the findings of the Report.

The Mental Health Research Project, being carried out in collaboration with leading psychiatrists at the National Institute of Mental Health and Neurosciences (NIMHANS) Bangalore, is a first of its kind empirical and descriptive study of the mental health of prisoners sentenced to death in India. The Trial Court Sentencing Project seeks to analyse sentencing in India's lower courts over a 15-year period across Delhi, Madhya Pradesh and Maharashtra. The Judges' Opinion Study, in collaboration with the Centre for Criminology, University of Oxford, University of Reading and the Death Penalty Project London, seeks to understand approaches of former Supreme Court judges towards the death penalty and the criminal justice system in India. The findings of these projects will be published by early 2018.

NLU Delhi-Herbert Smith Freehills International Negotiation Competition

National Law University, Delhi in collaboration with Herbert Smith Freehills, LLP organized the Third Edition of the International Negotiation Competition from 09-11 September, 2016. The competition, which was started in 2014, is the first of its kind in India.

With the growth of Alternate Dispute Resolution (ADR) as a viable alternative to litigation, the competition seeks to introduce students of the top law universities across the globe to international negotiations and to hone their skills, with simulations as close as possible to actual international environments. This year's competition tested the participants' ability to negotiate deals surrounding broadcasting agreements, defense mergers, renewable energy production deals, and even the workings of a food-production company.

This year, in the 3rd edition, 28 teams flew to National Law University, Delhi from across the globe to participate in the competition this year. Dave Knobel and Callum Lee of the University of the Sunshine Coast, Australia were adjudged the winners, and Camilla Pondel and Kieran Pender of the Australian National University were adjudged the runner up. Jeremy Roe of the University of Melbourne was adjudged the Best Negotiator. Terence Aurora and Tammanna Aurora of V. M. Salgaocar College of Law, Goa won the award for the Best Negotiation Plan. Orla Murphy and Relebohile Chabeli of Rhodes University, South Africa was voted the team that best upheld the spirit of the competition.

STUDENTS ACTIVITIES AND ACHIEVEMENTS

Students Academic Assistance Policy (SAAP)

Students Academic Assistance Policy has come into force in Academic Session 2016-2017 to address the demands of students who requested academic assistance, in terms of class support as well extensive project assistance. This policy is beneficial for the students from 4th and 5th Year of B.A. LL.B.(Hons.) course who would like to evaluate the opportunity of considering a career in academia and policy research.

On the successful completion of the Programme, the concerned Student Assistant would be provided with a Certificate of Appreciation, mentioning the details of the SAAP Programme signed by the competent authority, in consultation with the Academic Assistance Committee.

MOOT COURT COMMITTEE

Mooting is a thrust area of Legal Education which provides practical skills to law students through simulated settings. The University strives to integrate the theory and practice of Law through moot court activities. The moot court activities are coordinated by the faculty adviser to the Moot Court Committee. Members of the faculty help students in preparing for Moot Court Competitions. National Law University, Delhi, encourages and facilitates students participating in Moot Court Competitions in India and abroad.

LITERARY AND DEBATING ACTIVITIES

The Literary, Debating and Quiz Committee is committed to promote a healthy and competitive debating culture on campus. In this Endeavour, the Committee organizes events throughout the year to encourage debating as an activity. The following events are noteworthy in this regard:

The Prof. Ghanshyam Singh Memorial Parliamentary Debate

The fifth edition of the Prof. Ghanshyam Singh Memorial Parliamentary Debate was organised from 20th to 23rd October, 2016. It saw wide participation from institutions across the country. With over 40 teams registered, the debate featured a stellar adjudication core consisting of Raunaq Chandrashekar, Eashan Ghosh, AkshayRaghupathy and Siddharth Thyagarajan. It witnessed some marvellous debating, with teams from St. Stephens College, Delhi and National Law School of India University (NLSIU), Bangalore making it to the finals. The team comprising from NLSIU emerged victorious.

The Literature Week

The Literature Week was organized in an attempt to facilitate intra-college debating and give people a chance to highlight their creative skills. As a part of the Literature Week, the Annual College Debating Championship (ACDC) was held to give a platform for budding debaters. Moreover, the Debate Committee organised themed quizzes and games like Pictionary, Taboo and Charades as a part of the Literature Week.

Debating Achievements

- Students of National Law University Delhi have done consistently well in debates across the country. Akshat Agarwal and Tarun Sundaram were winners of 'Trivium', the parliamentary debate held at Punjab Engineering College, Chandigarh.
- Tarun Sundaram and Kaustub Narendran were finalists at the parliamentary debate organised by BITS, Goa. Anmol Mittal and Arudhra Rao made it to the semifinals.
- Anmol Mittal also won the best adjudicator at the parliamentary debate organised at Jindal Global Law School, Sonapat.

ADR SOCIETY ACTIVITIES

The ADR Society aims to prompt the awareness about the ADR Methods among the students of the University and in nearby areas. Members of the ADR Society mentors the students who aspire to participate in the International and National Competitions.

International Performance

- Team comprising of Devdutta Mukhopadhyay, Saniya Sharma, Sanya Sud, and Hardik Singh, won the Best Mediation Advocacy Skills Award at the 11th ICC Paris International Commercial Mediation Competition 2016 held in Paris.

- Pritika Malhotra won best Mediator award at CDRC, Vienna 2016.

- Sonna Subbaiah and Kaustub Narendran broke to semi-final round of NLS NMC (Client Counseling) Competition, 2016.

SPORTS ACHIEVEMENTS

Sports' Fests

- The Sports Committee has sent a contingent of about fifty students to Virudhka, NLIU Bhopal (13 - 16 October, 2017). The Women/Girls' Football Team won Gold while the Men/Boys' team won Silver. However, due to instances of sexual harassment and other forms of discrimination meted out against the contingent, they decided to return all medals.
- Rahul Srivastava represented the University at the ParaInvicta, 2017 organised by NUJS, Kolkata. He won silver medals in Badminton and Table Tennis.
- The process for sending a contingent to Symbhav, Symbiosis Law School, Pune (24-26th February) is underway.
- The Committee has decided against organising Zafir this year since we are yet to have a sports complex of our own.

Tournaments Organised

All Girls/Women Football Tournament: The Sports Committee organised an "All Girls/Women Football Tournament". The Finals were won by the team comprising Anitha, Archana Negi, Ayushi, Pathak, Chinmayi, Yusra, Tijil Thakur. The matches were also refereed by women. The tournament saw the participation of eighteen girls/women in the teams across batches.

Inter-batch Volleyball Tournament: An "Inter-batch Volleyball Tournament" was organised by the Sports' Committee in the second week of November. It saw the participation of eight teams from five batches of LL.B. (LL.M. batch was unable to form a team due to lack of enough participants). The Tournament was won by Team from 4th Year. The second and third place was occupied by the teams from 5th and 1st Year, respectively.

Other Activities: Students have resumed playing cricket on campus by devising a novel method that ensures that the basketball court is not damaged in the process. The process of repairing the gym in both hostels is underway.

GENDER CIRCLE ACTIVITIES

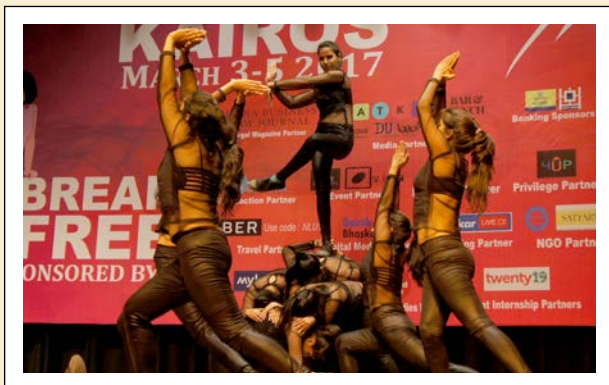

The Gender Circle consists entirely of students sharing a common interest in the spheres of gender and sexuality. The group has grown out of the Anti-Sexual Harassment Committee, which was actively involved in the drafting and strategizing for the passage of an institutional Anti-Sexual Harassment Code. In the process of the deliberations surrounding the drafting of the Code, a need was felt to create a culture of healthy debate, sensitization and awareness on these issues. The Gender Circle also hopes to create a safe and inclusive space where everyone can freely exchange ideas and perspectives in an intersectional framework.

As part of some of its activities, the Gender Circle has invited legal luminaries and prominent activists to deliver lectures on issues of importance relating to gender. Along with this, street plays were organized and posters campaigns for creating general awareness were held. The Gender Circle and the University administration have installed sanitary pad dispensing machines in the academic block, hostels, and the cafeteria. Other institutional changes such as equitable crèche facilities, entry-exit rules, appointment of a gynaecologist, removal of moralistic dress codes and sex education workshops are being discussed.

CULTURAL INITIATIVES

The Cultural and Dramatics Committee's aim is to give the students of NLU Delhi break from the hectic schedule dominated largely by academics. It also aims at making the campus culturally diverse and encourages students to showcase their talent in the field of music, dance and drama. The events organised during the previous year are as follows:

KAIROS

National Law University Delhi celebrated the 4th edition of its annual cultural and literary fest, KAIROS, from 3rd to 5th March, 2017. This three day cultural extravaganza saw students from all leading colleges from Delhi and NCR region participate in multiple events. The inauguration ceremony was marked by speeches from the chief guest Ms. Santosh Yadav, the first woman to climb Mt. Everest twice, which was followed by folk dance and puppet shows by artists from Kathputli Colony. The first day saw tremendous participation from all colleges in musical and dance events like solo singing, solo dance and group dance. These events were followed by the much awaited pro night where Run! It's the Kid, a Delhi based moody waltz band had the crowds sway to their spectacular tunes. This was followed by a DJ performance by Dunes Music festival.

The second day saw events like a capella, instrumental music competition, painting competition and battle of bands. The pro night saw a spectacular and lively performance by the Mumbai based duo Madboy/Mink, consisting of renowned television actress Saba Azad and Imad Shah. Day three was marked by flagship events like Ska Vengers, a city wide treasure hunt and Galli Galli Mein Shor Hai, a street play competition, stage play competition and slam poetry competition. The final pro night was marked by an enthralling performance by reggae duo Begum X and Delhi Sulatanate.

BOB events- events for senior junior bonding: This event helped the newcomers interact not just with their mentors but other seniors too. It was a two-day event, organised on 22nd September-23rdSeptember, 2016. These events help in breaking the ice between the seniors and the juniors.

Onam Celebrations: In order to foster cultural diversity on campus, we celebrated Onam, a Hindu harvest festival celebrated in the state of Kerala. We celebrated the festival by organizing an inter-batch tug of war and flower rangoli competition.

Dandiya and Garba Night: The next event that the Committee organised was the Dandiya Night on 18 October, 2016. There were food stalls arranged by the IDIA and these complemented the special Gujarati food served in the mess to mark the occasion.

Diwali Celebrations: After the Dandiya night, Diwali night was organised on 26 September, 2016. It started with the Rangoli making competition. Arrangements for applying mehendi were also done. In order to mark this festival of light where good prevails over evil, student also lit sky lanterns.

Halloween celebrations: Halloween was celebrated on 8 November, 2016 with students parading around the campus in scary costumes.

Christmas Celebrations: For celebrating Christmas, we organized Secret Santa, where students gave each other gifts secretly. This was followed by a Christmas ball on 22nd November, 2016.

Establishing Music Club, Dance Club, Drama Club and Arts Club: Apart from all the occasion-specific events that took place, this year various activity clubs have been started on the campus. There are five clubs in total: dance, music, art & craft, book reading and drama. The aim is basically to bring people of similar interests on the same platform. This will serve as a great opportunity to get benefitted from each other's talents.

Achievements: Aatman Shukla, a student from the first year of the University, wrote a book named Mocking Existence. It comprises poems and was published by the Estrade Publications
