

CALL FOR PAPERS

JOURNAL OF VICTIMOLOGY & VICTIM JUSTICE

Volume: 3, 2020

National Law University Delhi and Indian Society of Victimology announces its 3rd Volume of Journal of Victimology and Victim Justice. NLU-ISV Journal of Victimology and Victim Justice invites scholarly oeuvre including explorative articles, evaluative notes, books reviews, critical comments, and original research findings among eminent jurists, academicians, victim service facilitators, policy makers, scholars and students in the subject field of Victimology in a broad sense of discipline visualizing greater understanding of victims, victims' rights, victimization, victim and offender relations, institutional functioning and relevant issues.

The Journal invites insights and methodological based research outputs of relevant disciplines including psychology, psychiatry, sociology, social work, economic, history as well as law, legal and political theory pertaining to interests of victims all over the world. The conceptual based research writings to be submitted shall be peer-reviewed by the editorial board members around the world.

Indian Society of Victimology (ISV): A Minuscule Prelude

Instituted in 1992, Indian Society of Victimology was inaugurated by the eminent jurist, Hon'ble Mr. Justice V. R. Krishna Iyer, Former Judge, Supreme Court of India, with active engagements and efforts of Prof. K. Chockalingam, the then Head of Department, University of Madras, with the objective of advocating the cause of victims of crime. Currently, more than 400 members of the field have witnessed their presence in the society. The society in its last 25 years has organised thematic based seminars, conferences, workshops, and symposia on victimology issues in association of various institutions and organisations. The Committee on the Reforms of Criminal Justice System constituted by the Government of India, Ministry of Home Affairs, in November 2000 to consider measures for revamping the criminal justice system also recommended the draft bill prepared by ISV for consideration. Even for the introduction of the State Victim Assistance Fund by the Government of Tamil Nadu in 1995, the ISV served as a catalyst. Presently, the Indian Society of Victimology is chaired by Prof. (Dr.) G. S. Bajpai, Registrar, NLU Delhi with Dr. M. Priyamvada, Indian Society of Victimology, University of Madras, as a General Secretary.

Details about the Society and its programmes with other relevant details are available at www.isvindia.webs.com

Guidelines for Manuscript Submission

All manuscripts must be submitted electronically through email editor.isvjournal@nludelhi.ac.in. The original manuscript not submitted earlier in part or full, along with undertaking about the copyright and plagiarism free work may be submitted electronically in accordance with the formatting rules and style to 'The Editor' at editor.isvjournal@nludelhi.ac.in. Manuscripts submitted should be in British English. The length of the manuscript must be limited to 8000-10000 words (Research Articles), 5000 to 800 words (Short Articles) and 1000-3000 words (Critical Notes and Comments). The manuscript in Word format (A4 size sheet) must have double spacing with Times Roman Font at 12 point size allowing reasonable margin. (Sample format attached). On the first page of the manuscript after the Title and Author's name and affiliation, articles should include a short abstract, consisting of only one paragraph (100-150 words), as well as 3-10 keywords. All headings should be flush left and should be numbered:

1 First Level Headings Are in Bold

1.1 Second Level Headings Are Bold Italic

1.1.1 Third Level Headings Are Roman

Always use single quotation marks (‘’) for relatively short direct quotations. Longer quotations should be presented as a separate block of text, indented on the left, preceded and followed by a blank line, and printed in characters of normal size; such longer quotations are not enclosed in quotation marks. Double quotation marks (“”) are reserved for single words, concepts or short phrases that are not a quotation. Quotation marks should always precede punctuation marks. Manuscripts should be prepared following the APA (American Psychological Association) 6th Edition format only; any other style will not be entertained.

Submission of Manuscript

All manuscripts must be sent in .doc format through email to editor.isvjournal@nludelhi.ac.in along with copyright form duly signed by author(s). It is a rolling call and hence the submissions can be made anytime.

Sample Format

TITLE

(Times New Roman 16 Font)

Author(s)

Surname, First name, Middle Name

(Put the name of subsequent author(s) below the first author)

Affiliation

(No designation only Organisation)

Abstract

(100 to 150 words)

Keywords:

(Main Body of Text)

(Times New Roman 12 Font, Double Space, Justified Text)

Level of Headings

1 First Level Headings Are in Bold Roman

1.1 Second Level Headings Are Bold Italic Roman

1.1.1 Third Level Headings Are Roman only

(Note: Figures, charts and tables should be numbered separately if any)

Conclusion

Bibliographies/References/Endnotes

In text and endnote or reference work shall be based on APA Citation Style Manual 6th Edition. APA Citation Style Manual is available online at <http://coral.wcupa.edu/other/APA6thEdition.pdf>