"A good law library is the lawyer's storehouse of weapons, ammunition, and tools of all kinds, and a law library is the most valuable asset any lawyer can have." - Abraham Lincoln

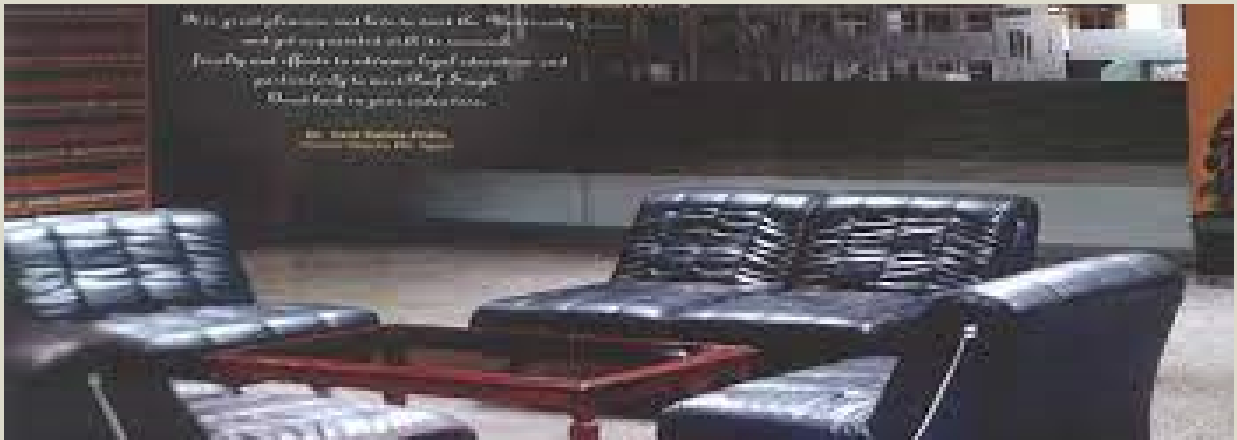

A law library is a place of power, knowledge, and opportunity. It provides a gateway to justice and a means for people to create positive changes in their lives and communities. The Library of National Law University Delhi is a large multi-disciplinary library known as heart of the University. The Library of the University is known as Justice T.P.S. Chawla Library naming after the name of Hon'ble Justice T.P.S. Chawla, Former Chief Justice, Delhi High Court, New Delhi. It is one of the largest law libraries in India and serves as a resource center for the students and faculty of the university.

Prof. (Dr.) G.S. Bajpai

The law library is the heart of the legal profession. It is the place to research, discover and explore the law. The library has a collection of more than 45,000 books, journals and other materials related to law, including Indian and foreign law reports, legislation, and other legal materials. It also has an online catalogue with access to over 16000+ e-books and e-journals. The library provides access to various online databases including Westlaw India, LexisNexis, HeinOnline, JSTOR, SCC Online, Manupatra, IndiaStat, Taxmann, Corporate Law Advisor and other legal databases. The library also has a reading room with seating capacity for 150 persons. It also provides access to various digital libraries available under Free Access to Law Movement (FALM). The library also organizes workshops and seminars to familiarize students and faculty with the latest developments in the legal field.

The law library of the University is the lifeblood of the legal education and research at the Campus. It is the source of knowledge and the platform for understanding the law. I welcome law luminaries around the world to enjoy academic richness of our library.
