"There shall justice prevail"

The LOGO of National Law University, Delhi is composed of 3 elements: n(N), L(L) and U(U) which are interlinked by the second element (L or Law). In its totality it represents the harmonious confluence of disparate elements (disciplines) and levels : a rule that Law and its executive, the judicial system, also performs. Individually, the "N" and "U" are downward-and upward-facing respectively, symbolising polar (and complementary) outlooks through which Law threads its way. The extension of 'L' or Law to the last level (or layer) attempts to encapsulate the concerns of social justice. The emphasis is on the rule of Law (represented by the 'L') in promoting social justice, particularly targeting those below baseline standards. Its columnar arrangement suggests an upholding of justice, equality, fraternity and human rights in all their facets in a secular democracy.

The National Law University, Delhi (NLU Delhi), has been established with a mandate to transform and redefine the process of legal education. The University aims to create a sui generis legal education system that is able to chisel a new generation of lawyers who are able, competent and humane and who would permeate not only into the legal system of our country, but also of the world as a whole, so as to meet the challenges of ever-evolving humane society.

Our endeavour has been to transform legal education into justice education and to be an instrument of social, political and economic change. The primary mission of the University is to create lawyers who will be professionally competent, technically sound and socially relevant. They shall enter the front rows of the Bar and the Bench to address imperatives of the new millennium, uphold the values of Indian Constitution and help strengthen the rule of law in the country. This necessarily means that students at our prestigious Law University shall be the bridge connecting the law with society, economics, and politics.

The lawyers trained here are well equipped with the desirable advocacy skills not only at the trial but at the appellate levels also. They will contribute as agents of change to the country's mandate to achieve its future developmental goals. This institution is nurturing and shaping aspirations of the youth of the country in realizing their dreams to be jurists skilled in judicial administration. Our students are ready to work relentlessly to make this world a better place to live in, in all respects. Dynamic in vision and robust in commitment, the University in a very short span of time has shown terrific promise to become a world class institution. In the NIRF Rankings 2018, NLU Delhi was ranked as second best law school in the country with a score of 74.58 out of 100. NLUD has been accredited with 'A' Grade by NAAC with a benchmark CGPA of 3.59 on a 4 point scale. We have also been granted CAT-1 status by MHRD for graded autonomy and rank at no. 2 in Delhi and no. 8 in the country as per the NAAC score.

These excellent ratings by esteemed Government agencies not only place NLU Delhi amongst few of the top institutions in the country imparting quality legal education but are a reflection at the excellent academic environment at the University for teaching & research. To inculcate the professional skills in budding lawyers, the pedagogy at NLU Delhi comprises of lectures, seminars, group and individual tutorials and simulated exercises like moot courts; client interviewing and mediation/conciliation etc. To facilitate intensive and interactive learning, thoroughly revised and updated study material is prepared in every course by the faculty. In the past few years, the University paced spectacularly and attracted some world class faculty from some of the best law schools in the world. Thus, the University at present can boast of a unique mix of faculty which has, on the one hand, some very eminent and senior faculty members whose experience is a great asset for the university and, on the other hand, young and talented faculty that brings contemporary and latest approaches to the research and teaching to this University.

We are suitably poised to be known as an institution devoted to significant research. The University has various Research Centres, inter alia, Centre for Communication Governance; Centre on the Death Penalty; Centre for Corporate Governance; Centre for Transparency and Accountability in Governance; Centre for Innovation, Intellectual Property and Competition; Centre for Criminology and Victimology; Centre for Banking and Financial Laws, etc. These centres are committed towards focused research in the contemporary issues and provide consultancy at the behest of Courts and Government bodies in various policy formulations. The University works on sensitive issues like 'Criminal Justice Administration', 'Gender-Sensitization', 'Women empowerment', 'Human Rights', 'Environmental issues' and 'Corporate Social Responsibility' (CSR) in close association with various Government and Private Agencies. We have a 'Zero Tolerance Zone' for any kind of discrimination on the basis of sex, religion, caste and/or any other parameter in violation of the spirit of Indian Constitution. The lawyers and researchers of tomorrow trained here are expected to be committed to make the manifesto of 'justice to all' and 'equal access to justice' a living reality and help in the speedy dispensation of justice. Visualising the track fared so far; the NLU Delhi is all set to become a University with a difference committed to offer a socially relevant education. For NLU Delhi the best is yet to come.

I welcome you all to NLU Delhi.

Registrar's message

Prof. Dr. V. S. Jindal

It's a momentous occasion to pen these line. The year 2018 marks the tenth year of the establishment of National Law University Delhi (NLU). Started with modest facilities, National Law University Delhi reached to its zenith in these ten years with incredible ranking by NAAC (A+ Scoring 3.59). The journey to excellence did not stop here as the University earned the unique distinction of achieving the 2nd Rank in law in India Ranking by the Ministry of Human Resource Development (MHRD) led National Institute Ranking Framework (NIRF). The terrific response to NLU Delhi is visible from more than 20,000 applications received by it to admission its various programmes.

The performance of the students at National Law University Delhi has always been stellar. Remarkably, that as many as five students in this year have cleared the Union Public Service Commission (UPSC) examination with noticeable success and this number is particularly laudable as the batch size of students is just eighty three in a year. The placement and employment results for the students of NLU Delhi have shown tremendous results and the students are getting coveted positions in the prestigious law firms, PSUs, Banks and any other organizations. It has almost become a trend to find the students doing convincingly when it comes to admissions and winning scholarships for higher studies in the most reputed Universities.

The confidence of the stakeholders in the University is primarily due to its ability to sustain quality education which is indicated by the presence of a very able faculty body and a terrific faculty - student's ratio (1:10) which is also very rare to find. The University offers efficient pedagogy and state-of-art technology and infrastructure to support students and faculty very efficiently. One of the factors leading to the resounding presence of the University is its ability to transform itself into a research institution carrying out remarkable international projects, policy studies and training programmes to various stakeholders in the Government. The various research Centres established in the University cater to varied research and training needs in the society. The corpus of research funds in the University runs into more than 15 crores. The University has a matchless presence of more than 50 exclusive Researchers, in addition to 50 full-time Faculty and more than 35 Research Scholars on the campus. This combination provides significant opportunities to the students to indulge in research pursuits to build their competence.

The University is fortunate to have access to Ministries, Courts, Bar and Bench and thereby the resources are mobilised to the classrooms and research works. The National Law University Delhi is perhaps the only institution which is highly generous in funding the students activities of all kinds on hundred percent basis to all the selected students to international mooted and other competitions. NLU Delhi has several collaborations with most prominent law schools abroad. NLU Delhi semester abroad students exchange programme is another attraction. The library at NLU Delhi now boasts to have the most exciting collection of book and e-resources including remote access feature with more than fifty thousand titles that give the students a great ease in their preparation for studies and mooted competition in most comprehensive way.

The vision and mission of this University is to enable the young minds for contributing to the national development and for the cause of humanity. We believe: "education is not preparation for life, education is life itself".

vision

Our sincere endeavor will be to make legal education as justice education, as an instrument of social, political and economic change, and to prepare Lawyers who will be competent in the art of advocacy both at the trial, appellate level and also skilled in judicial administration. The students of the National Law University, Delhi will be shaped as agents of change as the country mandates to achieve its developmental goals for future generations. The primary mission of the University will be to create Lawyers who will be professionally competent, technically sound and socially relevant, and will not only enter the Bar and the Bench but also be equipped to address the imperatives of the new millennium and uphold the Constitutional values.

Globalization is a challenge and also an opportunity in the present times. We require the convergence of Economics, Technology and Law. India had a long history of business and technology. The potential has been unleashed through the process of liberalization. Yet the smooth sailing requires the compass called Rule of Law. We have mixed track record on this count. India has established itself as a democracy which is a success on the macro participative process of governance. Yet, there are other crucial issues of internal dimension.

There is a complex task of assimilation of the fractured social classes for centuries in such participation.

Cumulative economic progress needs to reach the various layers to create a development index which is fair and equitable

Most importantly a transparent and speedy justice administration system which reinforces the faith in Rule of Law.

“ What a great, robust seat of learning. I haven't seen such a fine blend of a relationship of faculty and students. The dedication with which the Faculty engages in its work with the leadership of the VC is admirable. I consider it a privilege to be associated with the NLU so closely. I can only predict for the NLU a great future.”

Teaching Methodology

Overview

Code of Conduct and Academic Responsibility

The University takes a pro-active approach on all matters relating to professional and appropriate code of conduct on the part of the entire University community-students, faculty and non-teaching staff. All members of the University are expected to observe decorum in all their relations with each other. The University also recognizes the indispensability of statutory provisions in this regard. In furtherance of its commitment to an environment of honesty, fairness and mutual respect, the University takes serious cognizance of acts of academic / professional misconduct that include cheating in academic exercises, plagiarism, misrepresentation and interference of any kind in the access of fellow students to the University services, among others.

NLU Delhi's curriculum is inspired by the UGC Curriculum Development Committee Report to meet the challenges posed by globalization, e-commerce and transnational, legal, social and political issues. It also addresses the concerns of the Indian society like legal literacy, poverty, human development etc. The Curriculum promotes inter-disciplinary approach with Clinical Legal Education as an integral component of instruction.

The University imparts instruction through simulated activities such as moot courts, client interviewing, mediation / conciliation along with other interactive and participatory learning to develop professional skills in the budding lawyers. The faculty advisors act as mentors and counselors for students in their curricular as well as co-curricular activities.

Study materials accompany instruction in each course to facilitate interactive learning. Instruction is given through lectures, seminars, group and individual tutorials. Skills of reading, research, analysis and writing are developed through project assignments. Collaborative teaching is undertaken in some courses to maximize available expertise and to promote inter-disciplinary learning.

“Law is a powerful tool for social change.
I wish the management & students of NLU, Delhi the very best.”

Justice Tshering Wangchuck
Judge, Supreme Court of Bhutan

In the Classroom

The learning in an NLU-Delhi classroom is always enjoyable as well as challenging. We have developed modern, progressive teaching techniques, designed to meet the precise needs of different types of students. We know that when you are working hard and enjoying yourself, you will be learning faster and more effectively.

'Law is a powerful tool for social change. I wish the management & students of NLU, Delhi the very best.'

Justice Tshering Wangchuck

Interactive Faculty

Our teachers build bridges for students to support them across trying times both in and out of class. Students can discuss their economic hardships, emotional turmoil, language difficulties, career choices or even counselling for appropriate and reachable career goals. In class, there is a constant dialogue with students on issues of contemporary concern and curricula, constantly matching the changing times.

The University has the advantage of inviting the sitting and the retired Judges of Supreme Court, the High Court and also the leading lawyers, academicians and retired Judicial Officers for lectures, seminars and discussions involving the students and the faculty.

Five Year Integrated B.A.LLB. (Hons.)

The university offers a five year integrated B.A.LLB. (Hons.) Course. The Vice-chancellor has appointed an under graduate council consisting of senior faculty members for the conduct of this course. Joining a law course is a serious step which will perhaps change your perception of life, society and more importantly your role in administration of justice and upholding the ideals of the Constitution of India. We equip you with the knowledge to meet challenges of the emerging global paradigms, and empower you with methods and discipline that prepare you for the Legal Profession or placement in any Corporate or Law Firm.

NLU, Delhi students come from diverse backgrounds with aspirations of their own. They are intelligent and our task is to provide them a platform to decide their future course of life. The faculty ensures that the curriculum is stimulating, participatory and modern. Listening to students, smoothly moulding their minds and imparting knowledge is what the faculty is adept at. Your five years stay at the University will be an ideal blend of learning which will prepare you for tomorrow and the burgeoning needs of the legal world, with broad perspectives and finer details. You will graduate to be one of the finest lawyers. We will ensure that more than this happens.

I was extremely impressed to visit the NLU. The facilities and the environment created for the advancement of legal education in India are unparalleled in the entire sub continent of South-Asia. I am confident that the University under the able leadership of Prof. Ranbir Singh will become a leading University not only in Asia but in the entire Commonwealth of Nations. My best wishes.'

Prof. Ahmad Ali Khan
Department of Law, Bahria University, Pakistan

Launch of LL.M (Pro) Programme 2017

P.G. Diploma Programmes

The University is offering the following Diploma Programmes

Post Graduate Diploma in Urban Environmental Management and Law (PGDUEML)

The University is focused on strengthening delivery capacity of urban administrators and elected representatives. PGDUEML is designed to provide an in-depth knowledge and understanding of the existing urban laws, by-laws and policies. It is aimed towards the training and capacity building of urban administrators, personnel and all those concerned persons involved with improving living conditions and quality of life for urban citizens by providing them with policy prescriptions, innovations for better urban governance, information and training inputs.

Post Graduate Diploma in Tourism and Environmental Laws (PGDTEL)

PGDTEL is designed to provide an in-depth knowledge and understanding of the existing issues of sustainable tourism, with special focus on socio-cultural, legal and policy issues. The programme includes perspectives on all the new developments and new insights into the relationship between tourism and the environment, dealt with at both global and regional level. The programme is useful to all tourism providers and prospective tourism producers. It aims to assist professionals and fresh graduates to develop a better understanding of the tourism industry, especially in relation to those working in areas of ecotourism. This programme is open to all graduates / working professionals. Work experience of a minimum of two years in the relevant field is desirable

Post Graduate Diploma in Environmental Law and Policy (PGDELP)

With a more ecologically and socially conscious milieu it is essential to minimize the adverse impacts of pollution and ecological degradation through proper environmental management and international cooperation. This can be done by not just raising awareness of environmental values but also strengthening the delivery capacity of environmental professionals so that they are well equipped to face the challenges in their stream of work. PGDELP provides opportunities for law graduates and professionals working in the field of environment to enrich their understanding of the issues, institutions and initiatives in the field of environmental law and policy.

Certificate & Diploma Programme in Competition Law & Policy

National Law University, Delhi and CUTS Institute of Regulation and Competition (CIRC) have launched Certificate and Diploma Programmes in Competition Law and Policy. The enforcement of competition law and its pervasive presence across the sectors and business function is creating a high demand for competition professionals. These courses are specially designed by experts to inculcate necessary knowledge and skills, amongst the participants to deal with the issues relating to anti-competitive agreements, abuse of dominance, mergers and acquisitions, IPRs, etc., which would greatly enhance career opportunities and provide early mover advantage.

Moot Court Achievements

Moot Court Committee

Mooting is a thrust area of Legal Education which provides practical skills to law students through simulated settings. The activity integrates the theory and practice of law by creating real court room proceedings and inculcates skills of research, effective communication and thinking on the feet in students. Seeing its relevance, the University encourages and facilitates students participating in Moot Court Competitions in India and abroad. Our University has had a stellar record in mooting activities. We have also organised several moot court competitions in our short history of 9 years.

To facilitate mooting the University has a dedicated Moot Court Committee coordinated by a Faculty Advisor for the development of mooting skills in the students. It is a student elected committee with two members from each batch. Its objective is to promote and facilitate the organisation of moots in the University; implement internal selections to choose individuals who represent the University at various moots across the world; train students in mooting skills; and to act as channel between the University Administration and the student body in all matters related to mooting.

Legal Services Committee

The Committee has established a fully functional Legal Aid Clinic to pursue cases of people seeking legal counsel. In pursuit of this, the Committee has set up an office space on the campus premises from where a Legal Aid Clinic operates. In order to spread more legal awareness and to inform people about the clinic, the committee had put up posters and distributed flyers in Dwarka and areas surrounding Dwarka. Plays were also conducted for the same effect. Anyone can contact the clinic through a helpline no. which has been advertised in areas around the University and on the University website. A legal aid lawyer from the Delhi State Legal Services Authority (DSLISA) visits the clinic every week to deal with various grievances addressed to the clinic. The members of the Committee help the lawyers with these cases along with helping clients in filing complaints, writing letters, sending RTI's, applying for certificates online, etc. Some of the ongoing projects of the Clinic have been: -

1. Compensation for Sewerage Deaths Project
2. Pro Bono Week
3. Para - Legal Volunteer
4. Campus Labour Issues: Registration, Drafting Contracts
5. Digitization of Records

REPORTS

Third Universal Periodic Review-India Report

The Universal Periodic Review is a procedure under the aegis of the United Nations Human Rights Council. It involves a peer review of the human rights record of the every Member State of the United Nations, once every four years. Each country under review submits a national report documenting its human rights record since the previous cycle. National human rights institutions like the NHRC and domestic and international civil society organizations submit their own reports. The UN also compiles its reports and observations of its officials on the human rights record of the country. These documents form the basis of reviewing the record of the country by other members of the UN. India has already undergone two cycles of review (in 2008 and 2012, respectively) and had its third round of review on May 4, 2017 at the Human Rights Council, Geneva.

National Law University, Delhi has had the privilege of assisting the Government of India in preparing India's National Report for the current round of review. At NLU Delhi Prof. (Dr.) Ranbir Singh and Dr. Aparna Chandra prepared and presented the Third Universal Periodic Review- India Report (3rd UPR) for the Government of India through Ministry of External Affairs on May 4, 2017 at the United Nations Human Rights Council, Geneva. Prof. Singh was also part of India's delegation [which presented India's report at the UNHRC, Geneva]. The delegation was headed by the Attorney General of India, Mr. Mukul Rohatgi.

A Report by Amicus Curiae before The High Court of Delhi

In connection with a murder case where the accused was convicted by the trial court who while preferring an appeal to the Delhi High Court was found not guilty. However, this process took his precious 5 years or so and therefore the Delhi High Court while acquitting the accused set out the following questions:

- I. A background on the substantive law and procedure relating to the 'Default in payments of fine'
- II. What is the existing law on 'Suspension of Sentence' as given under the scheme of Section 389 of the Criminal procedure Code, 1973?
- III. What are the possible legal remedies for victims of wrongful incarceration and malicious prosecution in India?

In order to carry out research and submit the report, to the Delhi High Court appointed Prof. (Dr.) G. S. Bajpai, Registrar, National Law University, Delhi, as an Amicus Curiae in this matter, who submitted the detailed on these issues. In its order dated November 30, 2017, the Delhi High Court requested the Law Commission of India to examine the possibility of a legislation for providing relief and rehabilitation to victims of wrongful prosecution and incarceration in India.

The Death Penalty in India, Annual Statistics Report

The second edition of "The Death Penalty in India: Annual Statistics" brought out by the Centre on the Death Penalty (the Centre) at National Law University, Delhi attempts to compile comprehensive data on the use of the death penalty in India, in 2017.

In review, 2017 has been a year that presents significant challenges for the study of the death penalty in India. While there has been a drop of nearly 27% in the number of prisoners sentenced to death by Sessions Courts in 2017 (compared to 2016), there have been significant legislative developments that expand the role of the death penalty in the Indian penological imagination.

It has been a tremendous pleasure to be at your esteemed University and enjoy such enthusiastic and promising students and the exceptionally warm welcome. I sincerely hope that we will be able to cooperate in the future in order to move our common cause forward.

Dr. Philipp Ambach International Criminal Court, Hague

Thanks you very much for the kind word you sent via email on March 14. My state visit to India was, indeed, Wa grand success, and I am grateful for your involvement in this memorable experience.

I was honored to received the degree from the National Law University and to be in attendance for the special convocation ceremony. In what I refer to as the "Diplomancy of Knowledge," Canada and India have the means and the enthusiasm to foster greater global understanding through education.

I am confident that these ties will strengthen in the coming years.
I wish you every success in your endeavors at the university.'

David Johnston
Governor General, Canada
