

NATIONAL LAW UNIVERSITY DELHI

CALL FOR EXPRESSION OF INTEREST to offer
SEMINAR COURSES

February to June 2026

NLU Delhi invites expression of interest from leading practitioners and professionals for offering seminar courses in different areas of law (most likely evolving & diverse areas) in the upcoming February to June 2026 semester.

The seminar course is meant to foster advanced learning among students. NLU Delhi provides course instructors with complete academic freedom to design their course, teaching methods/pedagogy and course evaluation. We believe this freedom comes with the responsibility of ensuring higher academic consciousness. A seminar course comprises 5 credits and requires 75 hours of intensive teaching & learning. Hence, every seminar paper contains between 50-52 hours (min.-max.) of intensive teaching (class hours) during the semester with 2+2 hrs i.e. 4 hours/week. Remaining 23-25 hours comprises essential or mandatory reading hours by the students. No classes are held on Sundays.

Seminar courses will be conducted in the following mode:

- At least 50% classes i.e 25 hours must be conducted physically on campus at NLU Delhi, Dwarka
- Remaining 50% i.e 25 hours can be conducted in online mode.

Eligibility:

Eminent practitioners/professionals/academicians with at least 10 years of standing are preferred, who have demonstrated extraordinary contribution in a specialised field of law.

Important dates:

Last date of submitting EoI: 10th January 2026

Seminar classes Begin on: 2nd February 2026

Last Teaching Day: 20th May 2026

Please send your detailed CV along with the detailed course outline in the template (Attached).

Please mail your applications to seminar-courses@nludelhi.ac.in

Seminar course proposals can be offered only after being approved by the Course Development Committee (CDC) and the Vice Chancellor.

Disbursement of honorarium to external course instructors: NLU Delhi offers external course instructors a modest honorarium of Rs. 1,25,000/- per course without any other additional benefits. If there are two course instructors, the amount will be equally distributed internally by the lead faculty. Additional remuneration for payment to any guest faculty engaged by the course instructor is not allowed.

NOTE: Please do not send the proposal on the themes given below as these were offered in the previous semester:

- Anti-corruption legal landscape and practice
- Artificial Intelligence and Law: Navigating the Legal Frontiers
- Commercial Disputes – a Practical Perspective
- Constitutional Law in Times of Crisis
- Law Policy and Evolving Artificial Intelligence
- Liberty under Indian Criminal Law: Bail & Premature Release

ESSENTIAL READINGS: (Please provide mandatory module-wise readings of overall 23-25 hours)

Basic Readings :

[Prescribed text book(s)]

Please recommend TWO/THREE core books for the course. These books should cover most of the subject matter in the course and be suitable for the average student

The library will procure 3-5 copies of these books and place them in the Reference Section to ensure continuous access

These books need not be a part of your weekly reading described below.

Module-Wise Course Syllabus (Total between 50-52 hours)

You can have any number of modules. Anything between 8-10 modules for an advanced paper is considered doable. Please ensure that the course has a minimum content for 40 hours and maximum content for 48 hours.

Module- 1 (----- hours)

Pinpoint the readings you will cover in each session.

Rely heavily on primary readings: cases, statutes, journal articles and book chapters

Be specific about the page numbers if the readings are comprehensive. Ideally excerpts of readings will ensure greater levels of preparation. For each 2 hour session, as a thumb rule prescribe not more than 50 pages of reading.

Module- 2 (----- hours)

Module- 3 (----- hours)

Module- 4 (----- hours)

Module 5- (----- hours)

Module 6- (----- hours)

Modu.....

Any other information/guidelines for the student

For instance seminar paper guidelines, resources etc.

Instructions (rubric) for class participation and how students will be marked.

Any other expectations of the course instructors from students.
