CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

ABOUT THE POST GRADUATE INSOLVENCY PROGRAM

The two-year Post Graduate Insolvency Programme (PGIP) – MA/LLM is a specialised academic programme in insolvency and restructuring offered by National Law University Delhi (NLUD). The PGIP Certification is issued and authorised by the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Board of India (IBBI). A separate Master of Arts (MA) / Master of Laws (LL.M.) degree in Insolvency is awarded by National Law University Delhi (NLUD).

The PGIP-MA/LLM Degree in Insolvency will equip aspiring professionals with essential knowledge and skills for careers in insolvency, liquidation, bankruptcy, and business turnaround processes. It benefits those aiming to become insolvency professionals, in-house counsels, advisors, or pursue academic research in this field. The program combines theoretical insights with practical applications, fostering expertise in strategic decision-making, communication, and conflict resolution. Emphasising ethical integrity and professional responsibility, the curriculum ensures that graduates are prepared to manage complex insolvency scenarios. The PGIP-MA/LLM Degree in Insolvency is designed to meet industry expectations and prepare professionals to excel in this evolving domain.

National Law University, Delhi ("University") is inviting applications from meritorious and dedicated candidates for faculty position on Contractual basis.
