Notification

The ACADEMIC AND EXAMINATION REGULATIONS for the B.A.LL.B.(Hons.)–Five Years Integrated Degree Programme, provides the following provision for the Grade Point system:

> Clause 13: The official transcript of the University shall indicate only the Grades and the Cumulative Seven-point Grade Point Average.

Further, pursuant to the mandate of the University Grants Commission (UGC), now, the University has adopted a Ten-point Grading System in the B.A.LL.B.(Hons.) Programme. This revised grading system will be applicable only for students admitted to the B.A.LL.B.(Hons.) programme from the Academic Year 2024-25 onwards. The detailed grade point system on the 10-point scale is attached as Annexure-A.

Additionally, the course curriculum and credit system have also been revised effective from the Academic Year 2024-25 onwards. These changes will also be applied to all students admitted on or after the Academic Year 2024-25 onwards. The detailed course curriculum and credit are attached as Annexure-B.

This issues with the approval of the competent authority.

ANNEXURE-A

1. SCALE AND GRADE VALUES

It was decided that the performance of all students in all courses shall be evaluated on a 10-point scale. This is being changed from the existing 7-point scale because:

i. UGC requires the grade should be on 10 pointer scale.
ii. Examination department faces problem in moderation.
iii. The range between lowest passing mark of 50 and highest 70 is only 20 marks.

Following would be the Grade Values for the course on a 10-point scale:

Percentage	Grade Description	Grade	Grade Value
90 and above	Exceptionally Outstanding: Student meets exceptionally high standards for the course and assignment.	O+	10
85-89	Outstanding: Student meets highest standards for the course and assignment.	O	9
80-84	Meets very high standards for the course and assignment.	A+	8.5
75-79	Meets high standards for the course and assignment.	A	8
70-74	Meets good standards of the course and assignment.	B+	7.5
65-69	Meets most of the standard for the course and assignment.	B	7
60-64	Meets the basic standards of the course and assignment.	C+	6.5
55-59	While acceptable, falls short of meeting basic standards in several ways and assignment.	C	6
50-54	Lowest grade for passing	D	5.5

a. If student obtains fractional marks (0.5 or more), such fraction shall be rounded off to the nearest whole number.
b. In order to be successful in a course, a student shall be required to obtain at least 50% marks, i.e., a grade equal to or higher than D.
c. In order obtain a conversion of CGPA to Percentage, the CGPA shall be multiplied by 10 to arrive at the aggregate percentage.
